CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

As part of the management accounting course trilogy, ACCT 320 is an intermediate management accounting course which builds on students' abilities to prepare and communicate contextually-relevant information, identify frameworks, and model value creation developed in ACCT 220. Students will explore and apply theory and detailed technical concepts to assist with sound decision making that enables and supports organizations to plan, implement and control the execution of strategy. Camosun College (2022) Calendar Description retrieved from: <https://calendar.camosun.ca/index.php?catoid=7>

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Describe the role and purpose of the management accounting function within organizations.
2. Describe and interpret management accounting terms and foundational concepts.
3. Identify and relate fundamental management accounting systems, tools, and processes to business and/or accounting situations.
4. Recognize the pervasive competencies expected of an accounting professional, including ethical decision making, teamwork, and leadership.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

In-class: In person classes (live classes) will be held at the start of class every Tuesday and Thursday night. In addition to attendance, students are expected to access online materials available on the course D2L site and ensure that sufficient homework is completed to make up the additional time of regularly scheduled classes plus homework time. Online lecture PowerPoints will be available for every chapter. Online step-by-step PowerPoint solutions will also be available for every chapter.

Quizzes: Quizzes will be released and will be completed in D2L. Opening and closing dates of quizzes are posted in the schedule above. Students will be given 2 opportunities to complete each quiz. Students are given one-hour to complete the quiz that covers the assigned chapters.

Group Assignment: The Group assignment will comprise of a case study with data that will need to be analyzed. Students are encouraged to form their groups before the assignment is released. The group MUST consist of a minimum of three (3) students and no more than six (6) students. Each member of the group will receive the same mark for the group's submission. Marks will be given for completeness, accuracy, creativity, strategy, and effectiveness. Details will be given in the assignment.

Mid-term Exam: The mid-term exam is three hours in length. Students will be given a set time period to complete the exam during class hours. Exam formulas will be provided.

Final Exam: The final exam is three hours in length. Students will be given a set time period to complete the exam. Exam formulas will be provided.

Exam Software: Camosun College reserves the right to use online exam software. It will be the student's responsibility to ensure their computer system is up to date to use online exam software.

Camosun uses the standard 9-point system for academic programs. Camosun College grading system can be obtained from: <https://camosun.ca/registration-records/student-records/camosun-grading-systems>
