CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

In this course, students learn about the evolving role of not-for-profit and government organizations in society, and the implications on accounting, planning, and control. Students review and analyze relevant regulations and practices for effectively reporting and managing these institutions.

PREREQUISITE(S):

C in ACCT 210

C in ACCT 220

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Investigate the characteristics and nature of not-for-profit and government organizations to analyze and evaluate them, and determine how they differ from for-profit organizations.
- Analyze and interpret selected provincial and federal legislation as it applies to accountability, financial management, and governance requirements.
- Research and apply Public Sector Accounting Standards and other Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the preparation of financial statements.

- Evaluate government and not-for-profit management control systems which include budgeting, program analysis, auditing, and strategic management methods. Prepare a basic budget by object of expenditure for a government organization.
- Recognize and analyze non-profit and government risk factors and develop risk management tools to mitigate risk.
- Describe and analyze accountability and performance evaluation practices for assessment of effective stewardship

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Internet access, camera and microphone are required for this course as it is delivered completely on line. Portions of the course will be facilitated using Blackboard Collaborate - the link can be found within the course D2L site, under the Navigation Bar heading "Collaborate". No accounting software is required to be purchased for the course.

For Camosun Online Learning Requirements please click on this link:
<http://camosun.ca/services/orientation/online-learning.html>

For the Midterm exam and the Final exam you will have the option to write in class or on line using the course D2L site (subject to room availability). If you choose to write either or both exams on line, you will be remotely monitored during the exam. You will require a computer/laptop, strong internet connection, camera, microphone and audio - it is recommended that you do not use a public internet connection for these exams

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

Assignment formatting. The School of Business uses APA style for formatting assignments and citing references. Proper citations and formatting using APA style will be required. See Camosun College (2018) Library Citation Guides retrieved from: <http://camosun.ca.libguides.com/apa7>.

- Where required by your instructor, submit all assignments into the D2L assignments by your last name.
- In text citations for quotes, paraphrasing, and references must be consistent with APA standards.
- Grammar, spelling, style and APA formatting, citations and referencing will be assessed in your mark.
- All submitted work must be properly referenced to sources where required by your instructor.

- Unless otherwise specified, you are to submit your own work, any work collaborated (unless permitted by the course) will be considered in violation of the college's Academic Integrity policy. See Camosun College (2021) Academic Integrity Policy

Deadlines and exams. You must submit your assignments on the due date or as announced. A grade of zero will be assigned to late submissions. There are no additional assignments or make-up exams of any kind if you performed poorly on an assignment, midterm or final exam.

- a) EXAM DATES WILL NOT BE RESCHEDULED. Non-attendance on scheduled exam dates results in a zero grade. Exceptions will be made only for medical reasons or extenuating circumstances that must be submitted and then accepted by the instructor. Please advise your instructor promptly.
- b) Students registered through the Centre for Accessible Learning \(CAL\) should discuss timelines with their instructors at the beginning of each semester.
- c) Medical notes must be dated, signed, and be written on letterhead or prescription paper imprinted with the physician's name and address. Notes are accepted from Physician (GP or medical specialist), Nurse Practitioner, Psychiatrist, Psychologist, Counsellor and Aboriginal Elder. Electronic notes will not be accepted. Medical documentation must be received as soon as reasonably possible.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
