EVALUATION OF LEARNING

DESCRIPTION	WEIGHTING
Assignments	42%
Final Exam	30%
Midterm Exam	25%
Course Requirements Quiz	3%
	TOTAL
	100%

If you have a concern about a grade you have received for an evaluation, please notify me as soon as possible. Refer to the Grade Review and Appeals policy for more information.
<http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.14.pdf>

Assignment tasks will be self-evaluated as follows, unless otherwise indicated:

Level 1 (100%) Proficient with distinction	Technically correct; professional preparation and presentation. IMPORTANT: A Level 1 score can only be achieved on an initial submission of a task, not on a revision.
Level 2 (87%) Highly proficient	Most items technically correct; professional preparation and presentation.
Level 3 (78%) Proficient	Most items technically correct; errors with one or more significant issues; professional preparation and presentation.
Level 4 (67%) Approaching proficiency	Some items technically correct; professional preparation and presentation in most cases.
Level 5 (55%) Proficiency not achieved	Proficiency not achieved technically and/or professionally.
Level 6 (0%) Passing not achieved	Task unsatisfactory, including submitted late, poor use of grammar, technically weak, unprofessional response. If a level 6 is awarded on any task, a revision is required to improve the mark to a level 5. If a level 6 is received on a task and it is not revised, then you will receive an incomplete grade for the entire course.

Assignment task submission requirements

- On Mondays at 9:00 am PST, the assignment for your simulated work term will be released.
- Unless otherwise noted, all tasks are due by Sunday of the indicated week by 11:55 pm PST.
- The initial submissions are reviewed for completion and to ensure a “reasonable attempt” has been made. If all tasks have been attempted reasonably, full marks will be awarded for the initial submission, irrespective of accuracy.
- Once your tasks have been submitted to the D2L assignment dropbox, a self-evaluation form (in Excel) will release into the weekly task folder in Content. You must complete the self-evaluation form and upload it to the appropriate D2L dropbox by Tuesday at 11:55 pm PST or you will receive a level 6 for those tasks.
- The instructor will compare the results of your self-evaluation to the original work you submitted and either agree or disagree with your self-evaluation using a D2L rubric. Your instructor’s assessment of each task is considered final and will be transmitted to the gradebook.
- All initial submissions must be named as follows: LastnameFirstname–assignmentnumber. For example: DicksonJennifer-assignment1.doc *This includes Profile files
- All self-evaluation forms must be named as follows: LastnameFirstname–selfevaluation-assignmentnumber. For example: DicksonJennifer-selfevaluation-assignment1
- Students have the ability to revise up to four tasks (not four assignments) in this course. Revising a task can increase your mark on that task by one level (to a maximum of Level 2). Level 6 tasks must be revised to avoid an incomplete grade in the course.
- Revisions must be completed in a different font colour in the original submission so that they can easily be identified by the instructor. All revised submissions must be named as follows: LastnameFirstname–assignmentnumber–tasknumber–revised and uploaded to the appropriate revision D2L dropbox.
- Your instructor will review each revised task and increase the mark by one level if warranted (e.g. from a Level 4 to a Level 3). Your instructor’s assessment of revised tasks is considered final and will be transmitted to the gradebook.
- Do not revise any tasks that were assessed at Level 2 on initial submission. These tasks cannot be revised to a Level 1.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Late Submission Policy

- Given the timing of the self-evaluations for the course, late submissions are not permitted.
- Student technical issues are not an acceptable reason for handing in late submissions.
- IMPORTANT: As indicated above, you cannot have a level 6 on any task in this class or it results in an incomplete grade for the course. As a result, it is better to hand in an attempt for each task by the submission deadline than to leave a task blank.

Formatting of Task Submissions

Note: failure to follow these formatting guidelines will impact your mark for that assignment’s submission.

Word documents

1. Documents must be single-spaced, using 12-point Arial font and one-inch margins.
2. Use one Word file for all tasks that require a written response.
3. Insert a page break between each task within the Word file.
4. Label each page of the Word document with the task number.

5. Use the correct Memo or Letter format as required, unless indicated otherwise in the task.
6. Use headings and bullets to organize your information.
7. Your tasks must be in the order presented (i.e. task 1A must be before task 1B).

Excel documents

1. Use one Excel file for all tasks that require calculations.
2. Use a different tab or sheet for each task within the Excel file.
3. Label each sheet of the Excel document with the task number.
4. Use the Excel formulas for all calculations. Use cell references to link information that is calculated elsewhere in your spreadsheet.
5. Show calculations as separate line items.
6. Do not copy and paste an image of an Excel file or embed an Excel file within a Word document. If an Excel file contains supporting calculations, please refer to this document within the Word document and submit both files.
7. Your tasks must be in the order presented (ie. task 1A must be before task 1B).

Policy on Student Assessment

The midterm and final exams are written on the computer in D2L; there are no exceptions. Students who have a medical accommodation to handwrite their exams and/or must make the necessary arrangements with the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL). CAL students who do not have a medical accommodation to handwrite will complete their exams in D2L.

Non-attendance on a scheduled exam date results in a nil grade unless evidenced by a medical certificate. With a medical certificate, the midterm percentage will be included in the final exam. Exams are closed book. The only material allowed in an exam is a calculator, pen, pencil, highlighter, and eraser.

Exam rules will be posted to the D2L site closer to the exam dates.

There are no make-up assignments, quizzes or exams offered to improve a course grade.

Deadlines and exams. You must submit your assignments on the due date or as announced. A grade of zero will be assigned to late submissions. There are no additional assignments or make-up exams of any kind if you performed poorly on an assignment, midterm or final exam.

- a) EXAM DATES WILL NOT BE RESCHEDULED. Non-attendance on scheduled exam dates results in a zero grade. Exceptions will be made only for medical reasons or extenuating circumstances that must be submitted and then accepted by the instructor. Please advise your instructor promptly.
- b) The midterm and final exam will both be written in person.
- c) Students registered through the Centre for Accessible Learning \(CAL\) should discuss timelines with their instructors at the beginning of each semester.
- d) Medical notes must be dated, signed, and be written on letterhead or prescription paper imprinted with the physician's name and address. Notes are accepted from Physician (GP or medical specialist), Nurse Practitioner, Psychiatrist, Psychologist, Counsellor and Aboriginal Elder. Electronic notes will not be accepted. Medical documentation must be received as soon as reasonably possible.
