EVALUATION OF LEARNING

DESCRIPTION	WEIGHTING
Bi-Weekly Quizzes (6 x 2%) There will be a quiz at the end of every week comprised of 10-14 multiple choice questions each. The quizzes will open on Monday morning and close Sunday at 11:59 pm. I will not extend the date of the quiz for any reason, including illness, so do not ask. You have an entire week to complete it, so plan accordingly. Once you start the quiz it will be open for twenty minutes. Students have two attempts for each quiz and the best mark will be added to the gradebook.	12%
Take Home Essay - Gringo Love Due: April 13 Student will write a short essay based on the course content and the ethnography Gringo Love: Stories of Sex Tourism in Brazil . Essay questions will be posted one week prior to give students a chance to prepare.	10%
Life History Essay - please see handout for details Part 1 (10%) Due: Feb 9 Part 2 (10%) Due: Feb 23	20%

Midterm Exam Feb 24 -March 2 The midterm exam will consist of multiple choice, definitions, and short/long answer questions. The exam will be open for one week. It will open on Feb 24 and close on Mar 2. Once students log on to the exam they will have 80 minutes to complete the exam. It is set to auto-submit so please watch your time. The exam is open book, but you may not cut and paste answers from the course content or use AI in anyway. You may not work with other people. Please be clear that after teaching for 23 years I am very good at detecting when students have worked together on answers so don't do it. I am also excellent at determining whether AI has been used. It is a wonderful tool for some things but when it comes to academic material, it is far too general and often gets things wrong.	28%
Final Exam April 14-24 The final exam will consist of multiple choice, definitions, and short/long answer questions. Exams must be written during the scheduled times, unless discussed with instructor in advance. The final exam will be written during the scheduled exam period after the last week of classes.	30%

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

AI and Academic Integrity

Artificial intelligence presents new challenges for our understanding of academic integrity. Currently, Camosun does not have a policy governing AI-use. How it may or may not be used in courses is up to the discretion of the instructor. We will make time in class to discuss the pros and cons of using AI as a tool but my position, for now, is that students may use AI tools such as Grammarly to assist them with writing mechanics but are prohibited from using AI tools such as Chat-GPT to create content for assignments or exams.

Misrepresentation and plagiarism are serious forms of academic misconduct, which is difficult to avoid when using many AI tools. Please review Camosun's Academic Integrity Policy if you are unfamiliar with the rules about plagiarism and/or academic misconduct.

CAL Accommodations

Students requiring academic accommodations must provide a Letter of Academic Accommodation through the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) at the beginning of the semester. Requests for extensions must be made well in advance of the deadline. Exams written at CAL must be made two weeks in advance.

Communication

Please make sure to include your full name, and your course and section number in the subject line. Please communicate in a professional manner. When we are busy, we are all guilty of sending an email before attempting to answer a question or resolve an issue on our own. Please make sure you have referred to the course syllabus before sending me questions about exams, due dates, etc...

Late Penalty

Individual, written assignments must be completed and submitted on the date assigned. All late written work will be penalized 5 percent per day late, unless an extension is legitimately warranted and approved by the instructor well in advance of the assignment due date. Assignments will not be accepted beyond one week of their due date. Please note that time sensitive material such presentation and in-class discussion will not be accepted late.

Written Assignments

All assignments must be typewritten, double-spaced, pages numbered and properly cited and referenced using APA referencing format. Undocumented paper (papers without in-text citations) will not be accepted.
