Students registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) who complete quizzes, tests, and exams with academic accommodations have booking procedures and deadlines with CAL where advanced notice is required. Deadlines can be reviewed on the CAL exams page. <https://camosun.ca/services/academic-supports/accessible-learning/academicaccommodations-exams>

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The final grade will be a combined total of the written and practical marks.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students will maintain optimum levels of safe behavior (personal hygiene, use of proper body mechanics, personal protective equipment) to minimize potential for disease transmission
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Both the written and practical exams will include evaluation of comprehension and application of the readings from the assigned textbook and from material covered in class and lab.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students will be practicing skills on each other. Students must refrain from any inappropriate touching or comments that make their peers feel uncomfortable in any way. Respect must be given to all peers at all time. Any concerns must be brought to the instructor immediately.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students must become prepared with appropriate dress (loose shorts, t-shirt, socks, and shoes). Students must change for lab unless informed in advance. Students who do not come prepared to actively participate in labs may be asked to leave. This includes fanny packs
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cell phones / cameras are not permitted in lecture or lab, with the only exception being the simulation of 911 calls during scenario simulations in lab.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Research shows a strong correlation with class attendance and academic success. Given the practical nature of this course, and the need to understand the theory utilized during the labs, attendance at lectures is strongly encouraged and needed in order to obtain the Red Cross Professional Responder Certification

Additional Information

Missed gradable related submissions: Students who miss written or practical exams may be allowed to write a deferred or “make up” exam. These “make up” exams will be different from the original.

Excused absences may include:

- Permission by course instructor prior to absence
- Compassionate reasons
- Sickness

A student who does not speak to the instructor regarding a possible excused absent PRIOR to the start of the assessment will receive a zero. In this instance, a “make up” exam request will be denied.

Exam Scheduling

Students should not book vacation or travel plans during the exam weeks. Students travelling for placements will require formal documentation from their Placement Preceptor.

Please note that Camosun College now has a Final Exam Reschedule and Repeat Policy for extenuating circumstances as outlined in the policy. This policy only applies to Final Exams held within the final examination period.

Written and Practical Final Exams Scheduled in Exam Period – December 11 – 19, 2023
(All Material)

The Red Cross Professional Responder 2nd Chance practical exam and written exam for certification as a First Responder will occur after the BAET 2nd year exam block is complete.

If you wish to attempt these exams please do not book any travel or employment plans until the schedule is determined.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comply with all College policy regarding academic integrity; which is about honest and ethical behaviour in your education journey. The following guide is designed to help you understand your responsibilities: <https://camosun.libguides.com/academicintegrity/welcome>
Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.13.pdf> for Camosun's Academic Integrity policy and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc.). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started: <https://camosun.ca/services/academic-supports/accessible-learning>

Academic Progress

Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2023-02/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<https://camosun.ca/registration-records/policies-and-procedures-students/registrationpolicies-students>) and the Grading Policy at <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-07/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/services/sexual-violence-support-and-education.
