Lab Participation Expectation of Conduct

As a component of this course, students will be expected to participate in role-playing activities to allow student to practice assessment skills on each other. Please be aware that learning what the human body feels like in a healthy condition is important when it comes to recognizing unhealthy or injured states. In the course of learning to do assessments on each other, students will need to be touching each other in a safe and professional manner on a regular basis. As a health care professional, students will be expected to refrain from any inappropriate touching. In turn, students will have the assurance that the other participants have agreed to do the same. If this makes you uncomfortable in any way, please speak to the instructor prior to the beginning of the course. There can be no exception to this participation.

In accordance to the principles of health and safety and injury prevention which are core components of this course, it is expected that all participants in practice will always strive to maintain optimum levels of safe behavior (personal hygiene, decontamination of personal protective equipment, care with lifts and use of proper body mechanics, etc.) with a minimization of potential for disease transmission.

Because of the practical nature of the labs, all students must come prepared with “appropriate dress” to allow for hands on application / demonstration of assessment techniques.

Please come on time for labs. If you arrive more than 5 minutes late without a reasonable explanation, you will not be permitted to enter the lab.

Additional Information

Policy on Calculators: Calculators will be permitted during tests. Permission is restricted to non-programmable calculators only. Cell phone calculators and smartwatches cannot be used.

Policy on Cell Phones, PDAs, and other Electronic Devices: Cell phones, PDAs, and other electronic devices (such as ear buds, headphones, etc.) are not to be used during scheduled lecture and lab times. Please ensure that they are turned off prior to entering the classroom. Audio and video recordings of lectures and labs are prohibited, unless there is valid documentation provided from CAL. You are permitted to use your laptop during lab to take notes, but sending emails, web surfing, chatting or playing internet games is prohibited. This is distracting and disrespectful to the instructor and your peers.

Exam and Assignment Scheduling: The course exams and assignments are pre-scheduled by the instructor and written or due as outlined in this course outline. The final exam will be scheduled by the Registrar’s office. Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period by Camosun College. All students are expected to write the final exam at the time, date, and location set by the Office of the Registrar. Students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If the student is absent for an exam (written or practical) and has not made arrangements with the instructor in advance, a zero grade will be applied.

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

The applied nature of our programs requires a strong linkage between the theoretical components and the applied components; attendance is mandatory for all labs.

- Missing 10% of classes with unexcused absences will result in a meeting with the respective instructor.
- Missing 20% of classes with unexcused absences may impact the final grade.

An excused absence includes: a) a bonafide intercollegiate trip; b) permission of instructor prior to absence; and c) compassionate reasons.

As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
