COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Notice of D2L Online Quiz Expectations

Online quizzes for the weekly material will require completion on D2L as detailed in the course outline schedule of assessments above. These brief D2L quizzes will assist in ensuring that you are staying up to date with the content being covered and collectively they will comprise 15% of your final grade. You may attempt these quizzes twice during the period that they remain open (approx. 1 week, see outline above); your final mark will be an average of those two attempts. If you are satisfied with the mark you receive on the first attempt and do not make a second attempt, the first attempt will be your final mark for the quiz.

There will be a 2-hour time limit assigned to complete these online quizzes, within the period that they are open. These quizzes are designed to be completed within 30 minutes, so you will have plenty of time to complete them. Once the time-period has been completed, you will be informed which questions are incorrect, however, the correct answer will not be revealed – which will redirect you to look back through your resources to gain a better understanding of the concept. Reminders for the deadline to complete these quizzes will also be posted on D2L. It is your responsibility to ensure that these D2L quizzes are completed on time considering they remain open for multiple days as extensions will not be granted.

Once the deadline has closed, students will no longer have the opportunity to gain marks for completing these questions. A copy version will be posted after the deadline closes to allow for additional practice and will not impact your original mark.

GUIDELINES FOR LAB ATTENDANCE IN BIOLOGY AT CAMOSUN

In order to pass the course, students are required to meet the minimum lab attendance, participation and completion requirements.

- Laboratory activities involve practical applications of your knowledge and manual skills development. Development of these skills is a requirement to meet the Course Learning Outcomes.
- Meeting Course Learning Outcomes is a requirement for gaining credit in the course, as well as ensuring articulation, pre-requisite and transferability standards are met.
- Laboratory activities are in-person activities; attendance and participation are required. Online alternatives are not available.
- Laboratory attendance will be monitored by a sign-in/sign-out binder in the lab. It is your responsibility to record your attendance using this binder.
- Attendance from the sign-in/sign-out binder will be transferred to your D2L gradebook by your instructor. If you notice any discrepancies, please contact your instructor ASAP.
- If you arrive late to the lab, you may miss the opportunity to sign-in, and/or participate in graded assessments such as pre-lab quizzes.
- Lab manuals for each week will be provided on D2L, it is the student responsibility to print these off in advance of the lab for completion during the lab period.

Missed Labs Guidelines:

- Students who will miss a laboratory session have an obligation to seek out concessions directly from their instructor in a timely manner, BEFORE the lab period occurs.
- If notification is provided AFTER the lab has occurred, concessions may not be available.
- If you miss up to three (3) laboratory sessions, you are still eligible to meet the Learning Outcomes for the course.
- Concessions offered for the first three (3) missed laboratory sessions will depend on the reason for laboratory absence and is up to instructor discretion. Concessions may include writing up the laboratory report with provided data, omitting the lab, or other concessions.
- If you miss a total of four (4) or more labs for any reason (including, but not limited to: life circumstances, legitimate illness or family/pet emergency, planned vacations, milestone family events, work commitments, childcare or eldercare commitments, competitive athletic events), you will be unable to meet with learning outcomes for the class and will receive a failing grade (F) in the entire course, regardless of marks received on graded lab and lecture components. Exceptions will only be considered through an academic concession granted by the instructor or Dean/Associate Dean.
- This guideline applies to in-person laboratory activities only; for missed Lab Exams, please see the section in this outline on Exams.
- Please note that if you are suffering from a serious medical illness that prevents you from participating in this course, Camosun College has a Compassionate Medical Withdrawal Policy (<https://camosun.ca/services/forms#medical>)

IMPORTANT EXAM INFORMATION:

All examinations must be written at the scheduled time, unless there is a documented medical or other emergency that prevents you from doing so. In this case, you must notify the Instructor directly BEFORE the examination day and submit supporting information to corroborate your emergency. A note simply stating that you were unable to write an examination due to a non-emergency related situation will not suffice (personal, confidential information is not required). Minor ailments are not considered valid excuses. Contacting your instructor after an assessment has already taken place will result in receiving a zero for that assessment. In addition, please draw your attention specifically to Camosun's examination policy which states that examinations must be written at the scheduled time except in case of an emergency. Examinations will NOT be deferred for vacations or pre-booked flights or other non-emergency situations. Examinations cannot be written before the scheduled dates or times or by switching to other section times as these rooms are all at capacity for exam writing purposes.

PLEASE NOTE: These assessments have been planned and spread out across the course, the term, and the material in order to provide you with the best chance for success in the course, as well as retention of the information. For this reason, please do your best to write all assessments as outlined here on the dates they are scheduled.

Attend classes regularly and pay attention to class discussions. Repeated absences from class and reliance on notes obtained from peers will compromise success in the course. A variety of concepts will not be adequately understood by only viewing the PowerPoint notes packages provided on D2L and thus will require the understanding generated through classroom discussion and explanations in addition to supporting readings and video explanations when required.

According to current college policy, students may not use recording devices in the classroom without prior written permission from the Instructor. When the use of a recording device is sanctioned by the College's Center for Assisted Learning to accommodate a student's learning, the Instructor must be provided with an Instructor notification letter that specifies the use of a recording device and a recording agreement needs to be completed and signed by the student (contact the Instructor for this). Recordings made in the classroom under this accommodation are strictly for the student's personal use only, and distribution of recorded material in any form or on any forum is prohibited. All recorded materials must be permanently deleted/destroyed at the latest on the day following the final assessment in the course.

Based largely on the college's privacy guidelines, recordings of lectures will not be provided for asynchronous, individual study.

You are encouraged to consult the course Instructor if you require assistance. While the Instructor is willing and able to assist with understanding course content and directing you to appropriate resources, they cannot do the work for you. The responsibility lies with the student to source out and utilize resources that best suit their study needs. Do not wait until just before or after an examination to do this.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
