CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

This course provides an introduction to structural and functional relationships within the eleven systems of the human body. A lab and lecture based format, combining slides, models, photographs, diagrams and organ dissections is used to study both gross and microscopic human anatomy. Anatomical and physiological terminology is stressed.

PREREQUISITE(S):

EXCLUSION(S):

Not Applicable

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Describe, using anatomical terminology, the human body at the tissue, organ and organ system levels.
2. Locate and identify gross and microscopic anatomical structures associated with the 11 human organ systems in slides, models, photographs, diagrams and dissections.
3. Interpret the relationships between anatomical structures in sectional planes of the human body, and describe these relationships using regional and directional terminology.
4. Relate anatomical structures to their basic functions and predict how changes in one would logically be expected to result in changes in the other.
5. Locate and identify surface anatomical structures by palpation.
6. Define anatomical and physiological terms, and apply this terminology in the context of human health science.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Lecture Attendance

Aside from the first week of classes, attendance will NOT be required for lectures. EXAMS are the only exception.

Laboratory Work

Laboratory attendance for this course is mandatory. It is expected that students will read and prepare for each lab BEFORE arrival. Lateness in arriving, failure to attend the lab or leaving the lab before its scheduled finish time will result in forfeiting credit for that lab, including any graded quizzes or assignments.

Missed Lecture Exams

All lecture exams must be written at the scheduled times. However, it is understood that emergency circumstances occur (e.g., illness or emergency in the immediate family); for such circumstances accommodation may be offered at the discretion of the instructor, provided the student:

- (a) notifies the instructor in advance of the exam (not after), and
- (b) provides documented evidence of the circumstance (i.e., medical documentation).

In the event of emergency circumstances, it is at the instructor's discretion whether to administer an oral or written make-up exam.

* HOLIDAYS OR SCHEDULED FLIGHTS ARE NOT CONSIDERED TO BE EMERGENCIES ****

Be sure not to make travel plans for the end of semester until the final exam schedules are finalized and posted. Please ask any family members who might make travel plans on your behalf to consult you before booking tickets.

Missed Lab Exams

Without exception, all lab exams must be written at the scheduled times. Lab exams differ from lecture exams in their formatting and the fact that they cover lab content in a non-cumulative manner. Due to the nature of our shared lab space with other courses, lab exams cannot be made up outside of our regularly scheduled lab time. In the event of emergency circumstances (see lecture exam), it is up to the instructor whether an oral exam may be scheduled.

Cheating & Plagiarism

Cheating is a serious offence and is considered to be academic misconduct. A student caught cheating on an exam, quiz, or assignment will forfeit all credit for that submission, as well as have a note sent to the Dean. Cheating includes but is not limited to:

- (a) using unauthorized materials or resources in a quiz/exam (including cell phones and smart watches),
- (b) providing information to another person regarding exam content

Plagiarizing is appropriating the work of another person (including the ideas or language) and passing them off as your own (see <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.1.pdf>). For example, having a classmate “help” by seeing and copying their work is a serious form of plagiarism and will result in forfeit all credit for that submission, as well as have a note sent to the Dean.

Except where work is assigned to a group, all written work, including lab data processing and graphs, must be done individually.

The consequences for cheating and plagiarism are outlined by Camosun College policies (see <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf>).

Student Safety

Consider the following laboratory safety practices:

Lab footwear	<ul style="list-style-type: none">For safety reasons WorkSafeBC mandates that students are required to wear closed shoes in all lab times. Flip flops, sandals or shoes with holes are not acceptable.
Eating & drinking	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Absolutely NOTHING may be ingested while in the lab. Chewing gum and applying makeup or lip balm are similarly prohibited.If something must be consumed, then it may be taken out of the lab.
Hair	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Long hair must be tied back securely
Hand washing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Hands should be thoroughly washed BEFORE leaving the lab.

Study Habits

Good (and regular!!) study habits are required to do well in this course. You should plan on a minimum of 4 hours outside of scheduled class time for the completion of assignments and for general studying. Joining a study group can help make this more fun.

Lecture notes will be posted on D2L in PowerPoint form. It is highly recommended that students print them out (3 to a page) and bring them to each lecture (or have them in front of them as they watch recordings). These slides should be used as a study guide, not as your sole source of information. You will need to write down additional key words for examples and explanations given during lecture and watch recommended videos to really solidify your understanding. It is also recommended practice to transcribe these notes into a study-friendly format after each lecture, incorporating additional information from your textbook. Study these notes before the next class to prepare yourself for new material, which will often build on previously covered material.

Please take advantage of office hours to check-in, have a chat, or clarify a concept or assignment. It makes a world of difference.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
