INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Megan Fuller
EMAIL: mfuller@camosun.ca
OFFICE: CBA 235
HOURS: Mondays 10:20-11:20; or by appointment
(virtual office hours also available)

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

The application of key principles and theories of management is critical to the success of contemporary organizations. In this course, learners will acquire a solid understanding of foundational management theory and its application to strategic planning, organizational structures, leadership, and motivation. Through opportunities to apply these principles and theories, learners will also develop decision-making and team/group process skills.

Pre- /Co-requisites - One of:

C in English 12	C in ENGL 103 and ENGL 106
C in English First Peoples 12	C in ENGL 142
C in ENGL 091 and ENGL 093	C in ELD 092 and ELD 094
C in ENGL 092 and ENGL 096	C in ELD 097
C in ENGL 092 and ENGL 096	C in ELD 103 and 104

Upon successful completion of this course, learners will be able to:

- 1. Articulate the key principles, concepts, and functions of management theory as they apply to contemporary organizations
 - a) Explain the significance and role of ethics, social responsibility, and sustainability in organizations
 - b) Describe the strategic planning process and key elements in organizational structures
 - c) Apply leadership and motivation theories and concepts

d) Explain the control management process and the importance of monitoring and evaluating standards to achieve organizational goals

2. Apply group process skills to work effectively in a team

- a) Demonstrate appropriate and productive team behaviours
- b) Reflect on the ways diversity affects group and organizational effectiveness

3. Apply decision-making models to organizational challenges and opportunities

Indigenization: Reflection on the ways that diversity affects group and organizational effectiveness has been added to the learning outcomes. Students will engage with course content through participative, applied structures including group work and connections with community (e.g. business, not-for-profit, academic) organizations. Students will learn effective team skills, including identifying and building on one's own knowledge and strengths, in contributing to group effectiveness and success.

Applied Learning: Students will apply course concepts (e.g. team skills, leadership and motivation theories, decision-making models) through applied projects and cases to enhance skill-building and bring theoretical learning to life.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Assignment formatting. The School of Business uses APA 7 style for formatting assignments and citing references. Proper citations and formatting using APA style will be required. See Camosun College citation guides: <https://camosun.libguides.com/apa7>

- Submit all assignments into the D2L assignments by your last name.
- In text citations for quotes, paraphrasing, and references must be consistent with APA standards.
- Grammar, spelling, style and APA formatting, citations and referencing will be assessed in your mark.
- All submitted work must be properly referenced to sources where required by your instructor.
- Unless otherwise specified, you are to submit your own work, any work collaborated (unless permitted by the course) will be considered in violation of the College's Academic Integrity Policy. See Camosun's (2021) policy at: <https://legacy.camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf>.

Acts of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to:

- Using the exact words of a published or unpublished author without quotation marks and without referencing the source of these words.
- Duplicating a table, graph, or diagram, in whole or in part, without referencing the source.
- Paraphrasing the ideas of another person, whether written or verbal, without referencing the source.
- Providing answers to another student in any test, examination, or take-home assignment.
- Taking any unauthorized materials into an examination or test.
- Submitting the same paper or portions thereof for more than one assignment in different courses without the instructor's permission.
- If you are uncertain or have any questions regarding academic integrity, please do not hesitate to discuss these with your instructor.

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

The School of Business is committed to promoting competence, professionalism and integrity in our students and developing their core skills to succeed throughout their academic programs and in their careers. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide clear expectations of appropriate academic conduct and to establish processes for discipline in appropriate circumstances. It is your responsibility to become familiar with the content and the consequences of academic dishonesty.

Camosun College School of Business (2016) Academic Honesty Guidelines from:
<http://camosun.ca/learn/school/business/current-students/documents/Academic-Honesty-Guidelines.pdf>.

Deadlines, exams, and assignments. You must submit your assignments on the due date or as announced. A grade of zero will be assigned to late submissions. There are no additional assignments or make-up exams of any kind if you performed poorly on an assignment, midterm or final exam.

- a. EXAM DATES WILL NOT BE RESCHEDULED. Non-attendance on scheduled exam dates results in a zero grade. Exceptions will be made only for medical reasons or extenuating circumstances that must be submitted and then accepted by the instructor. Please advise your instructor promptly.
- b. Students registered through the Centre for Accessible Learning \(CAL\) should discuss timelines with their instructors at the beginning of each semester.
- c. Medical notes must be dated, signed, and be written on letterhead or prescription paper imprinted with the physician's name and address. Notes are accepted from Physician (GP or medical specialist), Nurse Practitioner, Psychiatrist, Psychologist, Counsellor and Aboriginal Elder. Electronic notes will not be accepted. Medical documentation must be received as soon as reasonably possible.

Final exams: Students are expected to write tests and final exams at the scheduled time and place. In emergency circumstances, a student may write a test or final examination before or after the scheduled time if the student would otherwise be unable to complete the program or course. Exceptions due to emergency circumstances, such as unavoidable employment commitments, health problems, or unavoidable family crises, require the approval of the appropriate instructor. Holidays or scheduled flights are not considered emergencies. The student may be required to provide verification of the emergency circumstance. See Camosun College (2018) Final Examinations from: <http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html#academic>.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
