COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

This course is a safe, inclusive, non-judgmental and respectful space. We draw on the work of Daniel Heath Justice, who encourages us to tell stories of complexity, hope and possibility, not stories of deficiency. This is a place of healing and of learning. This holds true for people of all races, genders, and abilities.

You may find some of the course material difficult to understand. If you do, please don't hesitate to ask for extra help. There are many sources of help at the college, and I am happy to guide you to them.

Complete all assignments by the deadlines. The assignments for this class are designed for you to practice the skills we are learning this term. For that reason, it is important to follow the guidelines of the assignments as closely as possible, and to give yourself enough time to work on each assignment. There are several services at Camosun College that are designed to help you succeed in your coursework, including your assignments. To give your self the best chance of succeeding in your classes, take advantage of these services:

1. The Writing Centre: for appointments of up to 30 minutes for help with assignments
2. The English Help Centre: for support in organizing yourself to write your assignments
3. WriteAway: on-line access to a librarian for help with research
4. The Student Learning Success Guides : for help with general student issues such as how to prepare for assignments and exams.

For all assignments, please format according to the assignment guidelines, which almost always means

- Include your name and the date on the assignment itself (not just in the file name).
- Double space and use an easily read font such as Ariel, Calibri or Times New Roman
- Submit Word doc or docx. Do not submit your file as a PDF or in another format
- Hand in your assignment on D2L under the appropriate drop box. I do not accept assignments by email.

If you cannot complete the assignment on the due date, you have 1 week grace period to get it in. If you hand your paper in after the official due date, I will read it but not comment on it. After a week, I will no longer accept the assignment, unless we have made alternate arrangements. If you have questions either about the assignment or about my comments on your assignment, please come to my office hours or arrange a time to come and see me. My office is Paul 328. I will hold zoom office hours as well. If you are registered with CAL and one of your commendations is extra time, please note that you still need to negotiate that extra time with your instructors.

Because the goal of this class is to enhance students' ability to read and write prose, all forms of generative artificial intelligence (ChatGPT, Quillbot, etc...) are counter to your own learning and self-interest in our context. For this reason, the use of GenAI tools is prohibited for all assignments. Please note: we may decide to play about with a GenAI tool in class. That is not to be understood as permission to use it in your marked assignments.
