COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Thought and Discussion Topics

Canadian Criminal Justice and Mental Illness: Studies indicate that one in three Canadian's will experience mental illness in their life time ("Mental Awareness week", 2017). Many will suffer in silence and many others will be unable to receive/access adequate care. Pick once area within the CJS and discuss how individuals with mental illness are treated.

The Youth Justice System: The YJS deals with 12-17 year olds in trouble with the law. It uses a rehabilitative method to deal with youth. It makes sure the youth are provided with meaningful consequences for their actions and then reintegrates them back into society. Discuss whether the Youth Justice System is too lenient or fair and equitable.

Criminal Justice and Indigenous Persons: Discuss why it would be important for persons who work in the criminal justice system to have a historical and contemporary understanding of Indigenous Persons.

Private vs Public Police: Discuss whether or not you agree with the following statement: "As the cost of Public police continues to rise there is an argument for an increase in the role and numbers of Private Security Officers".

Wrongful convictions: Wrongful convictions are a problem that continues to plague our criminal justice system. Although each case is different, identifying the commonalities among the cases is important for preventing future cases. Identify to persons who have been wrongfully convicted (go to www.cbc.ca/news/canada/canada-s-wrongful-convictions-1.783998 and discuss the similarities and differences that led to the wrongful convictions and identify no more than three recommendations that could be made from the case studies that might reduce the likelihood of wrongful convictions in the future.

Criminal Justice Process Synthesis

You are required to apply the knowledge gained in the course by guiding a criminally accused person through the criminal justice process from the point of arrest to release from the correctional system and reintegration back into society. This assignment consists of four (4) parts.

Part 1: Criminal Profile – create a fictional profile of your offender, including photo, family background, criminal history, employment and education information, and other relevant background information (10%).

Part 2: Police Report – write a police report on your offender for the offence (indictable but not murder) they have committed. This will include all information that police generally provide in the report to forward to Crown Counsel. The offence you have chosen must have taken place in British Columbia (20%).

Part 3: Court / Pre-Sentence Report – write a pre-sentence report on your offender with all of information required to assist the court with sentencing. (20%).

Part 4: Parole Report – write a parole summary submission for your offender. (10%).

How you paper will be marked:

- 1) Content. This includes how well you articulate your thesis statement or your central idea or position; knowledge of the subject and how well you support your statement with facts by referring to the literature.
- 2) Organization: I am looking for an introduction, body and a conclusion. I am looking for a logical presentation of the more important parts with fully developed paragraphs with proper sentence flow

- 3) Mechanics: That is, the quality of your writing including grammar and punctuation. Please avoid using described as slang (e.g. cop vs. police officer), colloquial (e.g. referring to taking drugs as a ‘fix’) or cliché (e.g. time heals all wounds)
- 4) Referencing: references are cited using the APA format in a separate reference page. Only those resources within the body of the paper are to be listed in the reference page. References are to come from a variety of sources (e.g. journals, reports, agency data, books, etc.) and should reflect Canadian content.
- 5) Format: Minimum 3 pages and Maximum 5 pages in length for Thought and Discussion paper. To be typed, one or two sided, double spaced, unbound, stapled in the top left corner, title page, cover page, number pages, 1” margin, Times New Roman font, 12 pitch.
- 6) It is to be handed to me at the beginning of class. Do not mail it to me, email it to me, drop it off in my office, slide it under my door or ask someone else to deliver it to class. Penalty for a late paper will be assessed at 20% per week. Students having a legitimate (as defined by the instructor) concern about meeting due date should consult with the instructor well in advance.
