INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Andrea Williams
EMAIL: WilliamsA@camosun.bc.ca
HOURS: To be individually arranged with instructor

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

My lived experience informs my professional development in a way that invites learners to think deeper and ask hard questions. I am inspired by the humility, care and wisdom of those who came before me and those who walk with audacity and courage to make transformative change.

"Justice is what Love looks like in public" Dr. Cornel West, 2011

"If you aren't immediately asking questions upon your arrival or of your ancestors arrival on the Land you are on, and about your role, history, and relationship to that Land, then there needs to be some questions asked about how we perpetuate contemporary colonial erasure and violence." - Stella Caban, 2020

"Nobody is outside the circle of human concern" Natalie Royer, 2022

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will begin to learn the skills and dispositions needed to work in a collaborative and respectful manner with children and families. Students examine the impact of residential schools and colonization and begin to develop the skills of reconciliation. Emphasis is placed on acquiring positive, relationship-based, guidance practice with children.

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- a) describe culturally appropriate, positive communication strategies with children and families for establishing respectful and caring relationships.

- b) examine and identify a variety of respectful and responsive positive guidance strategies that foster children's social and emotional growth.
- c) interpret children's social interactions using a variety of documentation techniques at a beginning level.
- d) critically analyze how their own values, beliefs, attitudes and awareness of the impact of colonization influence interactions with children and families.
- e) examine indigenous approaches to guiding young children.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

1. All assignments are due by 10pm on the due date. You will need to complete work in all areas to be eligible for a final grade for the semester.

Assignments are to be double spaced, double-sided, Times New Roman 12-point font, and must include a title page, introduction, body, clear headings and a conclusion; it is also very important to use citations and references (APA Style) for anything that is from a source that is not your own thoughts, or it is considered plagiarism.

Late Assignments: All assignments must be completed/submitted on the date assigned. Late assignment grades will be reduced by 3% per day unless an extension is negotiated and approved by the instructor in advance of the assignment due date.

To request an extension for an assignment, contact your instructor no later than 48 hours in advance of the due date, provide an explanation/rationale for requesting an extension and negotiate a revised due date. Extensions are not granted on the due date.

4. Follow APA writing guidelines. This includes formatting, spelling, grammar, in-text citations and references. Please remember to proof read for spelling and grammar to present a professional looking assignment.

5. It is the responsibility of each student to save a copy of all assignments until a grade is received.

6. Assignments will not be accepted after the last day of class at the end of term unless an extension has been granted prior to the due date. Assignments not received by this time will receive a zero.

7. Last day to withdraw from courses without a failing grade is July 5. If you withdraw by the posted withdrawal date, you will not be penalized. Withdrawal or incompleteness of work after the posted withdrawal date will result in an 'F' grade being assigned.

Plagiarism & Academic Dishonesty - If plagiarism, cheating, or academic dishonesty can be documented, the penalty will be an automatic "zero" on the assignment in question. Camosun College's policy on Plagiarism can be found here: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-&-support/e-2.5.1.pdf>

NOTE: It is the responsibility of the student to understand assignments and assignment expectations before submitting by the due date. Should students receive a mark of less than 50% on an assignment, they may request to rewrite and resubmit the assignment. Permission to resubmit an assignment is at the discretion of the instructor, rewritten assignments can receive a maximum grade of C+ (65%). This course must be passed with a 'C+' (65%) average to continue in the ELC Program.

Attendance

Due to the short and intense nature of the ELC program, classes are planned as a continuum for building the skill and knowledge required. Classroom experiences and participation are a major part of competency development; therefore, consistent attendance is expected. Students are required to contact the instructor in advance if they are unable to attend class. Students who miss class are responsible for the material and assignments covered in class. Repeated absence from class will affect a final grade.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
