INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Erin Van Stone

EMAIL: VanstoneV@camosun.ca

OFFICE: By Appointment

HOURS: By Appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students will apply the principles of responsive and respectful relationship-based care to nurturing children and their families by planning rich environments, developing program plans based on children's growing interests and abilities and establishing sensitive routines. Students use a critical lens to demonstrate their understanding of young children's emerging, multiple identities. Students apply their understanding of indigenous approaches and cultural respect and sensitivity, the impact of residential schools, on-going colonization and the skills of reconciliation through appreciation of the growing identity of young families.

CLASS GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

It is expected that you will attend all classes and be engaged and ready to share your thoughts and ideas. That you come to class having read modules and course content. That you complete your assignments on time and contribute to the class community.

Attendance and Late Assignment Policy

This course is synchronous, and therefore consistent attendance, participation and engagement are a requirement. As per the course outline, a large portion of your grade is composed of participation and a learning journal that synthesizes content from readings, discussions and lectures. If you need to be absent for medical or emergency reasons please contact us. Students with multiple unexcused absences could be at risk of not passing the course. If you miss three classes, your instructor will contact you to schedule a meeting to discuss your capacity to meet learning outcomes for the course. Depending on the rationale for your missed classes, the program leader and/or ombudsman may be invited into this conversation.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
