INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Enid Elliot
EMAIL: ElliotE@camosun.ca
OFFICE: CHW 312 PHONE: 250-888-7301
HOURS: By Appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students will consolidate theory and practice and demonstrate early childhood practice with children under age three and their families in this specialty practicum. Students will use critical thinking skills in the ongoing, dynamic creation of nurturing and culturally appropriate early learning and care environments. This practicum provides students with eligibility to apply for an Infant Toddler Educator (ITE) credential.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- a) inform relationships and practice using a social justice perspective and concepts of democratic practice that include children's voices.
- b) plan and evaluate components of early learning, caring and inclusive programs that support children's well-being and holistic learning in the context of family and community.
- c) establish and maintain inclusive, nurturing, safe and healthy environments which exceed the requirements of current legislation, regulatory bodies and program policies.
- d) demonstrate culturally appropriate interpersonal communication skills including indigenous approaches, reflecting an awareness of on-going colonization and the skills of reconciliation that contribute to caring, nurturing and responsive relationships with children, families, colleagues and other professionals in the community.
- e) develop caring relationships with young children and families.
- f) demonstrate professional responsibility and accountability as an early childhood educator.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
