HOURS: By appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Restricted to students in Early Learning and Care

Students explore the role of the early learning and care professional in leading and influencing positive change. The emphasis is on building team and community capacity through positive relationships and practices that are respectful of individuals and of cultural diversity and knowledge. Indigenous world views, the impact of ongoing colonization and the skills of reconciliation are applied to creating positive partnerships with Indigenous communities.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

You are expected to come to class having prepared by reading all of the required materials. Spend time with these materials, reflect on them, what do you think? It is important that you develop your own opinion, or bring questions, or perhaps an alternate viewpoint, so that we can collectively deepen our understanding of what these materials mean to our community.

For group assignments, you are to be accountable, to demonstrate professionalism, and to connect with me if I can support you through interpersonal communication.

All assignments are due by 11:59pm on the due date. If you want to request an extension, you need to contact me in 48 hours advance of the due date. Late assignments will be deducted 5% per day.

All assignments must be submitted to pass the course.

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION
