COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

1. Explain the income and expenditure approaches for measuring the economy's output; distinguish between real and nominal GDP.
2. Develop the aggregate expenditure model for a closed and an open economy in order to explain the multiplier effect and government fiscal policy.
3. Construct the aggregate demand and aggregate supply model and use them to explain short-run economic fluctuations, the impact of government monetary and fiscal policy, and the adjustment of the economy over time.
4. Explain the derivation of the unemployment and inflation statistics and determine the relationships between inflation, employment and income in the context of the macroeconomic models.
5. Analyze the short and long-run effects of government budget surpluses and deficits and the public debt on the economy.
6. Analyze currency markets and the balance of payments to determine a country's position in international markets.
7. Identify the factors contributing to long-run economic growth in the context of the different growth models.

CAMOSUN GRADING SYSTEM

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Quizzes:

Throughout the semester you will take several quizzes in MyEconLab platform. Before you attempt a quiz, I strongly encourage you to review the questions from the respective chapters in the Study Plan and Dynamic Study Modules in MyEconLab.

The quiz due dates will be determined in class depending on topic coverage. The deadline and chapters for each quiz will be announced on D2L after the quiz posted on MyEconLab. You will be given about a week to complete each quiz.

The lowest two quiz marks will be dropped and the rest will determine your total quiz grade. You will have 3 attempts and unlimited time for each quiz – your best attempt (of the three) will be used for your grade. Each quiz is “open book” and you have unlimited time to complete it before the due date. You can review your quiz results at any time after the due date.

There will be no-make-ups for missed quizzes. If you miss a quiz, it will count as one of your dropped quizzes.

Exams:

The midterm exam dates are given in the course schedule above. The final exam will be scheduled by Student Services and will take place during the final exam period. The exams are not cumulative. Students will be allowed to bring 2 pages (1 sheet) of hand-written notes to use during midterm exams. Higher percentage of final exam reflects the rigour and complexity of content. Review guidelines, practice questions and other details for each exam will be posted on D2L.

Deadlines: You must submit your assignments on the due date or as announced. A grade of zero will be assigned to late submissions. There are no additional assignments or make-up exams of any kind if you performed poorly on an assignment, midterm or final exam.

1. a) EXAM DATES WILL NOT BE RESCHEDULED. Non-attendance on scheduled exam dates results in a zero grade. Exceptions will be made only for medical reasons or extenuating circumstances that must be submitted and then accepted by the instructor. Please advise your instructor promptly.
2. b) Students registered through the Centre for Accessible Learning \(CAL\) should discuss timelines with their instructors at the beginning of each semester.
3. c) Medical notes must be dated, signed, and be written on letterhead or prescription paper imprinted with the physician's name and address. Notes are accepted from Physician (GP or medical specialist), Nurse Practitioner, Psychiatrist, Psychologist, Counsellor and Aboriginal Elder. Electronic notes will not be accepted. Medical documentation must be received as soon as reasonably possible.

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

This course is offered through the department of Economics, Quantitative Methods, and UT Business. Please reach out to your academic advisor, or our Program Leader Keith Yacucha at yacuchak@camosun.ca for information about our programs and how to make effective course choices that will support your future.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Course Withdrawals Policy

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College’s Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.
