INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Peter Tseng

EMAIL: tsengp@camosun.ca

OFFICE: E 304

OFFICE HOURS: By Appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students are introduced to the principles of macroeconomic analysis. Using theoretical models of national income and business cycles, they will analyze the impact of government policy on interest rates and exchange rates, and economic growth.

PREREQUISITE(S):

One of:

C in English 12

C in Camosun Alternative

And one of:

C in Math 11

C in MATH 077

C+ in MATH 072

C+ in MATH 075

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

1. Explain the income and expenditure approaches for measuring the economy's output; distinguish between real and nominal GDP.
2. Develop the aggregate expenditure model for a closed and an open economy in order to explain the multiplier effect and government fiscal policy.
3. Construct the aggregate demand and aggregate supply model and use them to explain short-run economic fluctuations, the impact of government monetary and fiscal policy, and the adjustment of the economy over time.
4. Explain the derivation of the unemployment and inflation statistics and determine the relationships between inflation, employment and income in the context of the macroeconomic models.
5. Analyze the short and long-run effects of government budget surpluses and deficits and the public debt on the economy.
6. Analyze currency markets and the balance of payments to determine a country's position in international markets.
7. Identify the factors contributing to long-run economic growth in the context of the different growth models.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Course Withdrawals Policy

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
