TERM:	Fall 2024
COURSE CREDITS:	3
DELIVERY METHOD(S):	Distance Learning (asynchronous – Fully Online)

Camosun College campuses are located on the traditional territories of the Ləkʷəŋən and W̱SÁNEĆ peoples. We acknowledge their welcome and graciousness to the students who seek knowledge here. Learn more about Camosun's Territorial Acknowledgement.

This section of Econ 210 requires mandatory attendance for the first-class meeting of the course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies for Students" Registration Policies for Students | Camosun College

To take first day attendance, you are required to fill in the questions in the discussion forum that will open at 12am on September 3, 2024 and close at 11:59pm on September 4, 2024. Please see D2L front page for details.

INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME:	Narine Grigoryan
EMAIL:	D2L e-mail (my tools->class list->Narine Grigoryan)
OFFICE:	CBA 238
HOURS:	In Office or ZOOM by Appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students will be introduced to financial markets and institutions in theory and practice. Through lectures and in-class discussion forums, students will learn the economic role of money, development, organization, and regulation of the Canadian financial system. Case studies and practical applications will teach students the role of central banking, the conduct of monetary policy and financial assets, and exchange rates.

PREREQUISITES: C in Econ 103; C in Econ 104

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

1. Discuss the functions of money and the components of the money supply, in order to develop an understanding of the role of money and monetary policy in the economy.
2. Determine the major factors influencing the level of interest rates and use the theories of the term structure of interest rates to explain the shape of the yield curve.
3. Distinguish between nominal and real exchange rates; and show how exchange rates and interest rates are related.
4. Explain the process of money creation by banks and near-banks and determine the effects of changes in reserves on the deposit multiplier.
5. Analyze the risks that banks are exposed to and discuss the regulation of financial intermediaries.
6. Outline the functions of the Bank of Canada and the objectives of monetary policy as they affect the Canadian economy.
7. Explain how the central bank's tools for monetary policy affect the monetary base and the money supply.

CAMOSUN GRADING SYSTEM

<https://camosun.ca/registration-records/student-records/camosun-grading-systems>

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Quizzes and prerequisites:

MyEconLab quizzes and pre-requisites are assigned for each module. The dates for each quiz and pre-requisite will show on MyEconLab front page, and will also be posted on D2L "News" section few days before the deadline. Quiz grades will be stored in MyEconLab until the end of the term, after which the final quiz grades will be exported to D2L grade book to calculate final course grade.

NOTE: While pre-requisite grades do not count toward your quiz or course mark, they are REQUIRED part of your quizzes. You MUST do the prerequisites to acquire assigned percentage to be able to access quizzes. Failure to doing so will prevent you from doing quizzes*.

Quiz set up features:

1. There will be no time limit placed on individual quizzes. In other words, you can save unfinished quizzes, come back and complete at your convenience. However, there will be a cut off time and date. Usually, it is 11:59pm on Sundays.
2. There will be limited number of attempts for each quiz (3-4). The exact number is based on the rigour and/or the length of the quiz. The highest score will be recorded toward your grade.

3. *Before attempting each quiz, you will be asked to complete “prerequisite” to acquire the required level of proficiency, measured in percentages, before getting access to the actual quizzes.
4. At the end of the term, all non-submitted quizzes will be assigned grade “0” (zero).
5. Two worst quiz scores will be dropped and the rest will determine your total quiz mark.

Full video tutorial about MyEconLab quizzes, prerequisites and other resources is available on course front page.

Discussion Forum:

You will have to participate in discussion forum posted for most units. You have the option to remain anonymous should you chose so. The instructor will review your answers and provide hers after the cut off date. To achieve maximum mark your answers should be meaningful and reflect the material covered.

Attendance Taking – Please fill in the questions in the discussion forum that will open at 12am on September 3 and close at 11:59pm on September 4.

Exams:

You will be given few days to prepare for each exam. The exam will be delivered online in MyEconLab platform. Format will be similar to quizzes.

Final exam is NOT cumulative. The higher percentage for the final exam reflects the rigour and the amount of the material covered after the midterm exam.

The exams are open book.

Deadlines: You must submit your assignments on the due date or as announced. A grade of zero will be assigned to late submissions. There are no additional assignments or make-up exams of any kind if you performed poorly on an assignment, midterm or final exam.

1. a) EXAM DATES WILL NOT BE RESCHEDULED. Non-attendance on scheduled exam dates results in a zero grade. Exceptions will be made only for medical reasons or extenuating circumstances that must be submitted and then accepted by the instructor. Please advise your instructor promptly.
2. b) Students registered through the Centre for Accessible Learning \(CAL\) should discuss timelines with their instructors at the beginning of each semester.
3. c) Medical notes must be dated, signed, and be written on letterhead or prescription paper imprinted with the physician’s name and address. Notes are accepted from Physician (GP or medical specialist), Nurse Practitioner, Psychiatrist, Psychologist, Counsellor and Aboriginal Elder. Electronic notes will not be accepted. Medical documentation must be received as soon as reasonably possible.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
