CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

School of Access

Employment Training and Preparation Department

Students in this course develop skills essential for employment, independent living, and learning in an adult setting. Students will build on their personal strengths, experience, and abilities in order to advance their employability, health, wellness, and overall agency. Students will explore and practice skills, attitudes and knowledge that promote healthy and effective human relations and respectful communication. Students will also apply organizational and planning skills to set and work towards goals relevant to their needs, interests, values, and ability

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- communicate effectively with teachers and peers
- research educational and employment opportunities in line with their interests and abilities
- demonstrate an orientation to safe work practices by identifying common workplace hazards, describing how to work safely around common hazards, and describing what to do if there is an accident

- work from a task list or learning plan
- seek an appropriate level of help in an entry-level work setting
- set goals relating to personal, educational, and employment ambitions
- make informed choices that promote health and wellness
- use information technology to research and communicate about topics related to learning and employment goals
- promote personal strengths and advocate for personal needs

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
