COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students in this course develop entry-level employment skills for the food industry. Students learn and practice skills in customer service, food preparation, receiving and storing food, dishwashing, and serving. Students will also practice customer relations, team work, local agricultural sustainability, and growing food on a small scale.

LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- serve customers in food service settings
- meet entry-level workplace expectations in food production, preparation, and service settings
- work safely in food production, preparation, and service settings
- research and explore food literacy
- assess personal compatibility with types of work in food production, preparation, and service
- interact with customers, peers, teachers, and supervisors in a professional manner
- initiate strategies that enhance entry-level employability
- use available resources to initiate a job search in food production, preparation, and/or service
- use information technology to research and communicate about learning and employment goals

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Students are expected to be responsible for the following:

- Attend classes and labs on time and ready to learn. Should it be necessary to miss a class, students should provide notice to this instructor. It is the student's responsibility to catch up on anything that may have been missed such as important announcements and assignments.
- Actively engage in learning by participating in activities, labs and placements, completing assignments, identifying learning needs, working with others and following through on commitments.

PREPARATION

Students are responsible for the following materials:

- Clean clothing in good repair appropriate for a variety of employment settings.
- Please wear closed toe shoes to all classes, labs and placements.
- 3 ring binder, pens, paper and a book bag for organizing course materials
- Calendar, schedule or smart phone to keep track of appointments and commitments.
- Meals, snacks, water.

Please inform your instructor if you need support to obtaining these items.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student is expected to do the following:

- follow all health and safety rules, procedures and guidelines,
- demonstrate courtesy and respect toward others
- assume responsibility for their education by demonstrating learning and getting help when needed,
- assist in the preservation of College property,
- Follow expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and placements.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
