REQUIRED MATERIALS & RECOMMENDED PREPARATION / INFORMATION

There are no required textbooks for this course. All materials are available on D2L. Access to the internet and a computer is required. It is recommended that students bring paper and pen to class for group activities; a laptop or tablet is also recommended for use during class time.

COURSE SCHEDULE, TOPICS, AND ASSOCIATED PREPARATION / ACTIVITY / EVALUATION

Because this is a self-paced course, learners will follow an individually-set timeline for assignment completion. Learners are expected to consult at least once a week with the instructor and work approximately 10-12 hours/week on assignments (including class time) if they plan to complete the course in one semester. Additional meetings with the writing consultant are expected occasionally throughout the semester, as these meetings are considered lab times for the course.

Class time will be divided into whole-class lecture/activities and individual work time. The instructor will be available during this time to assist and answer questions.

Students will complete assignments to help them achieve the learning outcomes for the course. Marks will be assigned according to the chart below. The following course components are subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor.
