Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students in this course will learn and develop skills in the context of reading and writing about literature, including Indigenous Peoples and Canadian literature, from a variety of genres. Specifically, students will practice and receive instruction in reading, discussing, evaluating, and writing about short stories, novels, poetry, and drama. Studying these genres introduces the student to basic literary terms and concepts. This course prepares students for post-secondary academic English courses.

The calendar description is available on the web @ <http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/web/engl.html>

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Time Management. This class is structured to be approximately three to six hours per week outside of class. Staying on top of the work is essential to successfully complete this course.

Assignments and Quizzes. Assignments are due on the dates and times listed on the schedule. Late assignments will receive a 10% deduction and will not receive feedback. Assignments will not be accepted one week after the deadline or beyond the class completion date without prior approval of the instructor. All writing assignments must be completed to receive a passing grade in the course.

- Do not email assignments except in extenuating circumstances and with the prior approval of the instructor. Instead, assignments must be submitted in person.

English Help Center (EHC). Rm. E202. Use the EHC when needed. The EHC provides one-on-one support for literary analysis and writing, including organizing ideas, helping with grammar, generating thesis statements, providing essay feedback, etc.

Also, the EHC offers free academic writing support for non-native English speakers in any discipline. Ample time in each appointment is devoted to addressing ELL-related topics and academic writing expectations.

Students can book online at <http://camosun.ca/services/writing-centre/appointments.html>.

Electronics. No cellphones, laptops, translators, or other electronic devices are allowed in class without the permission of the instructor. Electronics should be turned off and kept out of sight.

Instructor Contact

- Office Hours. You are encouraged to come chat with me during scheduled office hours. I'm always happy to chat about assignments, graded work, grammar, writing, drafts, literature, the course, etc. with students. Come see me! If the posted office hours don't fit, let me know and we'll find a time that suits us both.
- Email. Please use email for short and simple questions only. I won't comment on assignment drafts over email, but I'm happy to look at your work during office hours.
 - If I haven't responded to your email within 24 hours Monday-Friday, assume I didn't get it and resend. (I'm never ignoring you 😊)
- Keep me in the loop. If something is occurring in your life making it difficult to impossible to keep up with the course, let me know. Perhaps we can figure out a way for you to complete the course. Don't silently disappear!

Classroom Community

- We're all responsible for creating a respectful, supportive, collaborative, enjoyable, and productive learning environment. Class members are expected to participate with integrity and sensitivity, mindful of how one's words, actions, and attitudes affect others, and are expected to consider other viewpoints with an open mind, valuing differing viewpoints. Inspired by S. Quigley.

Plagiarism. Students are expected to do their own writing and use their own ideas (unless properly cited) on all assignments. You may get feedback on your writing from the English Help Centre (Indeed, I highly recommend you get feedback from the Help Centre for any take-home writing assignments). However, copying another person's writing; having someone else write all or even part of your composition; using another person's ideas without acknowledgement; and using another's sentence structures, while merely replacing words and phrases, are all plagiarism and will incur any or all of the penalties stated in the college calendar.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
