CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

This course provides core critical thinking, reading, research and writing skills transferable to academic disciplines. Students practice various forms of academic writing, including summary, critical analysis, and written research. Analysis of textual rhetoric, discourse, and style, along with academic essay-writing, develops self-awareness of methods of inquiry, critique, and reflection.

PREREQUISITE(S):

One of:

- C+ in English 12
- C in Camosun Alternative
- B in ENGL 170

CO-REQUISITE(S):

Not Applicable

EXCLUSION(S):

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Form critical responses to ideas.

- Distinguish between fact and opinion.
- Analyse and articulate the reasoning behind an argument.
- Demonstrate a critical examination of ideas through close reading, inquiry, divergent thinking, evaluation of evidence and interpretation, as well as an understanding of rhetoric, reason, logic and word usage.
- Produce writing under exam conditions, as well as outside class.
- Differentiate academic and non-academic writing.

2. Write in an academic style common to multiple disciplines.

- Approach writing as an active exploration of multiple perspectives on a topic.
- Compose effective summaries.
- Select and use rhetorical patterns purposefully.
- Employ a comprehensive writing process, which includes prewriting, focusing, planning, multiple drafting, conferring, revising and editing/proofing.
- Develop an argument with a controlling thesis; write unified, coherent paragraphs, including effective introductions, transitions and conclusions in correct, clear, effective English.
- Develop effective, focused research questions.
- Demonstrate control, clarity and cohesion in the development and organization of ideas.
- Vary style purposefully for planned rhetorical strategies.
- Write for specific results.
- Critique his/her own and others' writing.

3. Read and analyze complex texts from various academic disciplines.

- Vary reading approaches for different purposes, such as personal response, persuasion, and criticism.
- Participate and engage in a dynamic, stimulating exchange of ideas based upon close textual readings.
- Discuss and debate text using terminology appropriate to the discipline and context of those texts.
- Analyze textual readings, which may include visual texts, by identifying controlling ideas, supporting details, dominant rhetorical pattern, subtext, tone and stylistic features.
- Summarize readings to reflect coherently the original's ideas, purpose, organization, and tone.
- Critically read your own and others' writing.

4. Demonstrate information literacy skills.

- Determine the nature and extent of the information needed.
- Know and use what information resources are available, in different formats.
- Use print and electronic resources effectively and efficiently.
- Evaluate sources for authority, relevance, reliability, currency and other criteria.
- Incorporate and integrate research through correct use of summary, paraphrase and quotation.
- Document sources fully and ethically, according to specified bibliographic conventions.

5. Develop self-awareness as an academic writer and contributor.

- Articulate one's position in a critical debate of ideas.
- Reflect on one's own writing for continuous improvement.

ONE: TEXTBOOK INFORMATION:

- There are NO required textbooks for the course.
- Supplemental (not required) textbooks are Essay Essentials 7th edition and The Broadview Pocket Guide to Writing; both are available through the Camosun College Bookstore in print or digital format.

TWO: GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION:

First: Weekly Course Information:

- There are Five Units in the course which can be seen in the Course Schedule information below and in the D2L Table of Contents.
- Course content pertaining to each Unit will be released weekly each Monday at 9:00 am PT. Course information is not released earlier under any circumstances.

Second: Course Content (Please read the following carefully):

- This is an introduction to post-secondary level standards of composition, revision, editing, research, and documentation. This is Not a formal grammar course.
- Students are expected to be competent in all basic levels of language and punctuation.
- The primary focus of the course is rhetorical devices and appeals in several academic writing contexts to promote persuasive writing augmented, at the end of term, with additional research methods.

Third: Accessing Course Content (Please read the following carefully):

- Each week information concerning course content can be found here in the Course Schedule, in the Table of Contents located below this Overview, or in the "Contents" of the D2L site.
- It is important to stay up to date with readings each week.
- This is not a self-paced course. Late assignments will receive compounding late penalties (see specific information below).

- Check the News on the Course Homepage at least twice a week for any updates/changes posted there (this is the responsibility of the student).

Fourth: Email Communication (please read the following carefully):

- My email office hours and face to face office hours are provided on the course homepage.
- I answer other general emails between 9-5 each weekday.
- I do not check/answer emails over weekends or holidays; please do not send communications during these times.
- I respond to emails in a timely fashion, but since I receive many messages a day, I ask that you use email prudently and expect 24-48 hours for a reply.

Fifth: Email guidelines and Student Email Conduct (please read the following carefully):

- Please reference your course and section number in the Subject Line when sending an email.
- Do not email assignments (upload to corresponding Assignment Folder).
- Please do not email whole or parts of assignments in emails.
- Please make email questions specific. First check course information for answers. Emails should be brief and to the point.
- Please visit the college policy for information concerning student conduct.

COURSE SCHEDULE, TOPICS, AND ASSOCIATED PREPARATION / ACTIVITY / EVALUATION

The following schedule and course components are subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

THREE: LIST OF ASSIGNMENTS: Total number of MARKS in course = 90 MARKS

- Unit One: Comprehensive Summary Assignment: 15 marks; Due Date: January 19, 2024, before 5:00 pm PT.
- Unit Two: Directional Process Assignment: 20 marks; Due Date: February 2, 2024, before 5:00 pm PT.
- Unit Three: Extended Definition Assignment: 20 marks; Due Date: March 1, 2024, before 5:00 pm PT.

- Unit Four: Reactionary Summary Assignment: 10 marks; Due Date: March 15, 2024, before 5:00 pm PT.
- Unit Five: Research Argument Assignment: 25 marks; Due Date: April 12, 2024, before 5:00 pm PT.
- Please Note: There is no final exam. The Research Argument Assignment is the final assignment.
- Please Note: Traditionally, the class average in my first-year composition courses is a B-/B.
- Please Note: Expect 1-2 weeks for feedback for graded assignments.

FOUR: GUIDELINES (please read the following carefully):

- Assignments must be submitted following the correct format on/before the due date BEFORE 5:00 pm PT. This is the responsibility of the student. No exceptions: late penalties will apply for a late assignment.
- Excluding exceptional circumstances, an extension inquiry must be made at least one week in advance of the due date.
- Note that problems with online access, software, printing issues, travel issues, etc., will NOT be accepted as reasons for extensions or the avoidance of a late penalty. A late assignment on D2L will be considered late.
- All assignments must be uploaded to the Assignment Folder as a WORD Document or PDF; twelve (12) font size; Times New Roman or Ariel double space.
- Save a copy of each assignment.
- There are no rewrites; there are no additional assignments; no additional assignments will be provided to augment a grade.
- 10% penalty for each day or portion of each day late including weekends and holidays. Access to the Assignment Dropbox ends 72 hours after the assignment due date and time.
- A late assignment will not receive feedback.
- No credit will be assigned for any of the following examples of academic misconduct: plagiarism; cheating through the copying of material from another student; making up fictitious information and presenting it as factual; altering records for the purpose of misrepresentation; helping another student to cheat, plagiarize, or falsify information.
- Assignments are due on or before the due date, before 5:00 pm PT (Pacific Time). If a student is in another time zone, the student is responsible for submitting the assignment by the time specified in PT. A late paper according to D2L is a late paper.

- I cannot proofread and/or edit papers. The Camosun College Writing Centre is a useful and available resource open to all students. A link is provided in each Unit of the course.
- Please be advised that, historically speaking, the average final grade in my first-year composition classes is a B-/B.

FIVE: SCHEDULE:

- Please Note: I reserve the right to make changes to the material in the case of exceptional circumstances; any changes to course content will be promptly communicated directly through the “News” located on the course Homepage.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
