EXCLUSION(S):

Notes: Only one of ENGL 170 or ENGL 175 may be used towards a Camosun College credential.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Write workplace correspondence, reports, and manuals that use correct workplace-writing style, structure, format, and ethical standards.
 - a) Present information appropriately either using the direct (immediate) approach (under normal circumstances) or the indirect approach (for bad news and some persuasive situations).
 - b) Write in a style that meets the informational needs and backgrounds of various audiences.
 - c) Write in a style that exhibits brevity and clarity and avoids language of low- information content.
 - d) Employ numbers, units, equations, and abbreviations correctly in documents.
 - e) Apply ethical standards and requirements (copyright law, plagiarism, sensitive material) to all writing.

2. Plan, organize, structure, and write workplace formats for a variety of situations.
 - a) Write workplace correspondence (letters, memos, e-mails) appropriate to audience and situation.
 - b) Write workplace reports appropriate to audience and situation.
 - c) Compose effective job-search documents related to specific job descriptions and situations.
 - d) Write an illustrated user-manual that employs clear instructions, procedures, and graphics that can be followed easily and accurately.

3. Design technical documents for high readability and appeal using word-processing software and techniques.
 - a) Articulate idea relationships and relative importance in technical documents by employing short paragraphs, headings, lists, effective spacing, and layout.
 - b) Depict data efficiently in technical documents using charts, graphs, tables, and other graphics.

4. Write all technical documents using grammatically correct sentences and paragraphs and using Standard English and spelling.
 - a) Demonstrate mastery of advanced grammar concepts by completing practice exercises.
 - b) Recognize and correct errors in grammar, spelling, and punctuation in own writing and writing of others.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

You can expect your instructor to

- teach to the course goals
- give clear instructions for assignments and exercises
- advise and support students in their coursework
- treat students with respect
- be available during office hours or, if necessary, arrange an alternative time to meet
- evaluate students fairly, based on criteria provided to students beforehand
- return assignments in a timely manner
- give useful feedback

Your instructor will expect you to

- keep up with course material in D2L
- prepare for class by completing readings and assigned work on time
- actively participate in class activities
- ask questions if you need clarification
- submit your own, original work
- use instructor comments and feedback to improve future work
- cooperate with and act respectfully toward other students and the instructor
- communicate with the instructor about problems or concerns as soon as possible

Additional Guidelines and Expectations

Guidelines for Preparing and Submitting Written Assignments –All formal written assignments for this course should be typed according to the assignment requirements. All papers should be clearly marked with your name and submitted on time, as a PDF, through D2L Assignments.

If you would like to receive inline feedback on a written assignment, you must also submit a hard copy of your assignment at the beginning of class on the due date.

Late and Missing Assignments – Late assignments submitted up to 5 school days past the due date will lose 10%, and will receive a grade only (no comments). Assignments submitted more than five days late will lose 40%. If you must hand in something late, please communicate with me by email beforehand. Requests for extensions made prior to the assignment due date will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Successful Course Completion – Students must complete all assignments and write all quizzes to pass the class. Under normal circumstances, students who cannot pass the cumulative in-class assignments will not pass the course. In other words, students must achieve a combined average of at least 50% on the two in-class writing assignments.

Writing Labs – Throughout the course, there are five writing labs, each worth 2% of your final grade in the course. I will monitor your attendance and participation during writing lab sessions. There will be no opportunity to make up missed lab classes, so please review the schedule and make sure you are aware of upcoming writing labs and prepared to participate in the scheduled activities.

For Your Records – Be sure to keep all rough drafts, final drafts, and graded assignments until the end of term. In the event of a computer failure or a grade discrepancy, these documents will be critical. Always, always back up your files. If you don't already have cloud-based file storage, consider using one of the many file storage platforms available.

Professionalism – At the end of term, I will assess your performance as a student in my class with a focus on the comportment expected of someone in a workplace setting. This grade is worth 2% of your final grade in English 170. In my assessment, I will consider the following aspects of your performance: attendance, participation, punctuality (arriving to class on time, submitting assignments on time), organization, comportment (respectful of self, instructor, and classmates).

Collaborative Writing – In this course, you will have the opportunity to co-author one or more documents. Any sort of collaborative effort demands a lot of those involved. Consider your strengths and weaknesses as a team member, and ensure you put in your best effort while accomplishing the tasks laid out for you in the team-based assignments.

Plagiarism, Cheating, and AI-Based Writing Tools - Plagiarism is a serious academic offense. Please ensure you submit your own, original work. Any assignment that contains plagiarism, in part or in whole, will receive a grade of zero. Please review Camosun's policies on academic honesty and plagiarism.

See below for our class guideline on the use of generative AI.

ENGL 170 Generative AI Guidelines

Our goals in ENGL 170 include learning to think, write, and communicate effectively. Although you do complete writing assignments for assessment purposes, the end products are less important than the writing process itself. The challenges and creativity inherent in planning, writing, and revising your documents are integral to your learning. To that end, use of generative AI is largely prohibited in ENGL 170. See the following list for further details:

1. Students must NOT use AI tools to generate any content in their writing assignments.
 - a. Assignment outlines, drafts, and final copies must be completed by the student.
 - b. All sentences and paragraphs must be constructed by the student.
 - c. All facts must be verified by the student.
 - d. All creative details must be generated by the student.
2. Students may use AI tools such as spelling and grammar checkers to ensure accuracy in their writing.
3. Students may use AI tools to generate practice questions or quizzes to supplement their learning outside of class.
4. Students may use AI tools to generate samples, as long as the content and writing in the samples are not replicated in the students' own assignments. * Note that AI-generated texts are often not particularly strong or exemplary.
5. While use of AI for composition is not permitted in ENGL 170, if a student does use generative AI in their submitted work (in other classes or in the workplace), they must clearly identify and attribute the AI content. *See Camosun's APA or MLA Libguides.

In ENGL 170, the use of AI to generate class assignments or write tests constitutes academic misconduct. Submitting an assignment composed by AI is a form of plagiarism, and answering quiz or test questions with the use on AI is cheating. If I suspect that an academic misconduct has occurred, I may do one or all of the following:

1. Consult with colleagues.
2. Run the relevant assignment through AI detection software (the results will not be considered conclusive but may contribute to a larger body of evidence).
3. Discuss the assignment with the student.
4. Ask the student to resubmit part or all of the assignment.
5. Report the misconduct to the School of Arts and Science.
6. Assign a zero grade to the assignment.
7. Assign an "F" for the course (in very serious or repeat offences).

If you have questions about when or how to use AI tools ethically, please talk to me!

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College's Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.

Changes to this syllabus: Every effort has been made to ensure that information in this syllabus is accurate at the time of publication. The College reserves the right to change courses if it becomes necessary so that course content remains relevant. In such cases, the instructor will give the students clear and timely notice of the changes.
