COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

The following class guidelines are here to ensure we have a productive term. In the first weeks of class, we will be reviewing these guidelines and adding to them as the class sees fit.

You can expect your instructor to

- Teach to the course goals.
- Give clear instructions for assignments and exercises.
- Advise and support students in their course work.
- Treat students with respect.
- Act in a fair manner.
- Be available during office hours or, if necessary, arrange an alternative time to meet.
- Evaluate students fairly and constructively, based on criteria made clear to students beforehand.
- Return assignments in a timely manner.
- Give useful feedback.

Your instructor will expect you to

- Attend class.
- Actively participate in class activities.
- Keep up with course material on D2L.
- Prepare for class by completing readings and assigned work on time.
- Ask questions if you need clarification.
- Submit all assignments on time and according to instructions.
- Submit your own, original work.
- Use instructor comments and feedback to improve future work.
- Cooperate with and act respectfully toward other students and the instructor.
- Communicate with the instructor about problems or concerns as soon as possible.

Guidelines for preparing and submitting written assignments

All formal written assignments for this course should be typed according to assignment specifications. Your papers should use correct and complete citation format according to the guidelines set out by the relevant academic discipline. All papers should be clearly marked with your name and submitted on time, as a .pdf, .doc., or .docx file through D2L Assignments.

Late and missing assignments

You must submit assignments on time. That said, your instructor is aware that you may be under unusual levels of stress. A reasonable explanation for a late assignment, if it is given before the due date, will be accepted. Late submissions without prior explanation will be penalized by 10%. Submissions more than one week late will be given a '0'.

Plagiarism & Cheating

Plagiarism is a serious academic offense. Please ensure you submit your own, original work, which you have written for the assignments in this class. Any external sources used must be cited according to standards set out in our class. You should review Camosun's policies on academic honesty and plagiarism, which you can find here: <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.13.pdf>

Additional Notes

If you encounter circumstances that you feel impede your learning in this course, or if throughout the term you discover ways I could better support your learning, please let me know. We are in this together, and I am happy to work with you to create a positive and productive learning environment.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
