Additional Expectations

Guidelines for preparing and submitting written assignments

All formal written assignments for this course should be typed according to the assignment requirements. All papers should be clearly marked with your name and submitted on time, as a PDF, through D2L Assignments.

If you would like to receive in-line feedback on a written assignment, you must also submit a hard copy of your assignment at the beginning of class on the due date.

Late and Missing Assignments – Late assignments submitted up to 5 school days past the due date, will lose 10%, and will receive a grade only (no comments). Assignments submitted more than five days late will lose 40%. If you must hand in something late, please communicate with me by email beforehand. Requests for extensions made prior to the assignment due date will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

You must complete all assignments to pass the course.

Plagiarism, Cheating, and AI-Based Writing Tools

Plagiarism is a serious academic offense. Please ensure you submit your own, original work.

Generative AI, like Chat GPT, may NOT be used to compose writing assignments in ENGL 170; our course learning outcomes require individual (human) thought and application through all stages of the writing process. Work that contains hallmarks of AI-generated text may be run through AI detection software (though the results will only be used to support other existing evidence). Since submitting work that is all or partially composed by generative AI is a form of academic misconduct, the related assignment will receive a grade of zero and may elicit further consequences. Please review Camosun's policies on academic honesty and plagiarism, which you can find here:

<http://camosun.ca/learn/school/arts-science/images/Arts%20and%20Science%20Academic%20Honesty%20Guidelines.pdf>.

For Your Records – Be sure to keep all rough drafts, final drafts and graded assignments until the end of term. In the event of a computer failure or a grade discrepancy, these documents will be critical.

Always, always back up your files.

Collaborative Writing – In this course, you will be asked to co-author one or more documents. Any sort of collaborative effort demands a lot of those involved. Consider your strengths and weaknesses as a team member, and ensure you put in your best effort while accomplishing the tasks laid out for you in the team-based assignments. Every team member is accountable for the finished product.

In-Class Writing -- Under normal circumstances, students who cannot pass the cumulative in-class assignments will not pass the course. "Cumulative" here means multiple in-class assignments throughout the semester. Students who are concerned about this course requirement are encouraged to seek guidance and clarification from the instructor as early as possible.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.
