COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

- Please remember that Camosun College, and our class in particular, aims to create a safe space for all students. We draw on the work of Daniel Heath Justice, who encourages us to tell stories of complexity, hope and possibility, not stories of deficiency. This is a place of healing and of learning. This holds true for people of all races, genders, and abilities.
- Peer edits (and indeed my edits) are to be given in the spirit of encouraging classmates and helping them believe in themselves as writers. We aim to help each other make our stories the strongest they can be by recognizing that we all have talents, and that writing is hard work.
- This is a difficult time, folks, and I aim to be flexible, but at the same time, we need to keep the course going so we don't get bogged down. To this end, please try to hand in your assignments on time. If you are unable to do that, please try to let me know in advance so that we can make arrangements for you to complete your work in a timely way.
