INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Dr. Karoline Guelke

EMAIL: guelkek@camosun.ca

OFFICE: Young 213

HOURS: Tuesdays 2 - 3pm, Thursdays 1 - 2pm, or by appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Drawing on various disciplines, this course considers how feminism is socially constructed with regard to relations of gender, class, sexual orientation and ethnicity. Gender and Women's Studies is an interdisciplinary field that includes scholarship in areas such as masculinity, femininity, transsexual, and lesbian/gay/bi/queer studies.

PREREQUISITE(S):

One of:

- C+ in English 12
- C in Camosun Alternative

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

- Describe gender as a category of analysis.
- Identify key concepts, themes, theories and debates in Women's Studies.
- Outline Feminist Theory, particularly as it pertains to a transnational world.
- Incorporate the workings of privilege, power and transformation in social and historical life.
- Intersect sexuality, ethnicity, class, nationality, religion and age with respect to gender identity.

REQUIRED MATERIALS & RECOMMENDED PREPARATION / INFORMATION

All course materials are accessible via our D2L site under each corresponding week. You will also find instructions there to guide your reading. The open access text below will provide brief overviews of key concepts and issues:

If you have a concern about a grade you have received for an evaluation, please come and see me as soon as possible. Refer to the Grade Review and Appeals policy for more information.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Expectations: Please see the section on student responsibility below. We will also talk about expectations in the first week of classes.

Due dates: Assignments and exams have to be submitted on the date listed in the course schedule. If you cannot meet a deadline due to an emergency, medical issue, or religious observance, contact me as soon as possible. For unexcused late assignments 5% of the grade will be deducted per day, and assignments will not be accepted more than seven school days late. If you anticipate problems meeting a deadline, please contact me early so we can work out a reasonable accommodation. Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated; please see section on Academic Integrity below.

Communicating with your instructor: I encourage you to make use of my office hours (see top of p. 1) to discuss any questions you may have about class material, assignments, or tests – or just to say Hi. When emailing me, please include your name and course number (GSWS 110). I usually check my email between 9am and 5pm, and you can expect to hear back from me within 24 hours (except on weekends).

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comply with all College policy regarding academic integrity; which is about honest and ethical behaviour in your education journey. The following guide is designed to help you understand your responsibilities: <https://camosun.libguides.com/academicintegrity/welcome>
Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.13.pdf> for Camosun's Academic Integrity policy and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Camosun College is committed to achieving full accessibility for persons with disabilities. Part of this commitment includes arranging appropriate academic accommodations for students with disabilities to ensure they have an equitable opportunity to participate in all of their academic activities. If you are a student with a documented disability and think you may need accommodations, you are strongly encouraged to contact the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) and register as early as possible. Please visit the CAL website for more information about the process of registering with CAL, including important deadlines: <https://camosun.ca/cal>

Academic Progress

Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2023-02/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal (see Medical/Compassionate Withdrawals policy). Please visit <https://camosun.ca/services/forms#medical> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence Policy: <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/services/sexual-violence-support-and-education.
