COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

---

Article Analyses (3 in total – 1 pre-midterm; 2 post-midterm; total percentage weight: 50%)

Most weeks in the Hist 100 Fall Term you will be reading an article related to lecture material. In an in-person class, you would be discussing these readings in weekly seminars and getting a seminar participation grade for your efforts. In this online class, however, you will be writing analyses of the articles and submitting them to me via e-mail.

The analyses are due on the Friday at the end of each week. If late, they will be penalized at a rate of 10% per day overdue. You will need to submit 1 analyses in the weeks before the midterm, and 2 analyses in the weeks after the midterm. So, to be clear:

Prior to the midterm, you will be reading seven articles (see lecture schedule). Out of those 7 options, you will write and submit analyses of one of them (you choose which one).

In the weeks after the midterm, you will be reading six articles (see lecture schedule). Out of these 6 options, you will write and submit analyses of two of them (you choose).

Each analysis should be between 400-500 words. A solid submission will assess the strengths and weaknesses of the article, identify its thesis and main arguments, address its sources, and comment on its relevance alongside other History 100 material.

I have provided you with an example of an article analysis (look under “Content” in the Hist 100 D2L site). Note that you will need to read the articles closely and provide sophisticated comments in your analyses. So avoid generalities like “In this article, the historian shows that Canadian women’s lives in the 1930s were difficult.” A much more nuanced description would be “The article demonstrates that factors such as class, race, and gender impacted the lives of Canadian women in the 1930s.” See the difference?

If you find that you’re struggling with the assigned articles and/or your written assessments, please contact me via phone or email and we can brainstorm together. History articles can be difficult for newcomers to the field, but with regular practice and tenacity, your History “muscles” will grow.

As you’re reading each article, it may help to consider certain important points. What are the main arguments of each article? What types of evidence are used to support these arguments? Do you find the arguments convincing? Are there any important questions left unanswered by the article? It may also be helpful to consider the author of each selection. Who does the author represent and to whom is s/he talking? Why does s/he approach the topic in a particular way? Does the author use a specific methodology or theoretical perspective (feminist, socialist, etc.)? When was the article written, and does its timing affect its conclusions?

AN IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT PLAGIARISM: This disclaimer applies to all written work that you will submit in History 100. As stated above, you must give proper credit to borrowed ideas or quotations that you use in your own writing. To falsely claim authorship of someone else’s ideas or words is called plagiarism. Plagiarism is a type of theft, and in this course it will result, at the very least, in a mark of zero for the assignment. Similar penalties will be applied to any student who buys, borrows, or re-submits a previously-completed History assignment. The ‘Net has also become a popular tool for dishonest students who want to cut corners on assignments. Keep in mind that Internet sources must appear in papers’ Bibliographies as well. I reserve the right to check any assignment with plagiarism detection devices including electronic search engines designed for this purpose. Please consult with me if you are unsure about proper documentation of your sources.

LATE PENALTIES AND SUBMITTING YOUR ASSIGNMENTS: Assignment due dates are firm, and assignments must be submitted to me in class on their due dates (otherwise they are considered late). No extensions will be considered except in cases of documented medical, psychological, or family emergency. If your paper is late because of illness or emergency, the penalty will be waived, but you may be asked to submit a note from a health practitioner. Computer/printer/wifi problems will not be accepted as a valid excuse for a late essay. Late essays will be graded thoroughly, but due to time constraints, they may not have extensive instructor comments. No assignment will be accepted after December 9th. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you’re having any problems with the assignments.

Mid-term Exam (25% of final grade)

This midterm reflection/exam will happen in Week Eight of the class (October 24-28). You will receive the exam via D2L on Monday, the 26th; you will submit your completed exam to me on Friday, the 28th.

Final Exam (25% of final grade)

There will be a final reflection/assignment/exam after Week Fourteen of Hist 100. It will focus on material covered after the midterm. Similar to the midterm, you will receive the exam and then have a few days to prepare your response.
