COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Participation/Professionalism:

Class attendance and participation is essential to the course objectives, and largely involves discussion of the topics and assigned readings or activities. It is also an opportunity for students to ask questions and learn from each other. This is an intensive course, you must attend for success in the class.

Your participation grade is assigned based on attendance (including being on time), completing the readings, the level of your constructive engagement in the classes and your small-group discussions, handing your assignments in on time and overall professionalism in the classroom. Professionalism also includes making arrangements with the instructor for extensions on assignments; and, looking for clarification when you are not understanding something.

As a special projects class, this course is primarily self-directed. Challenges can arise and it is your responsibility to reach out for support and brainstorm solutions with both your supervisor and instructor.

Due Dates and Late Assignments

The due dates are established in accordance with the course and term duration. The purpose of the due dates is to help both you and I to get the assignments done so that they can be assessed in a timely manner. Just as you need time to complete the assignments, I need enough time to grade them. As such, it is expected that students will hand in assignments on time.

Late assignments will be penalized 5% per day and after ten days will not be accepted unless an extension is legitimately warranted and approved by the instructor in advance of the assignment due date.

Emails and communications

I am available by email for clarification and questions, but as a sessional instructor I am not on my email every day – expect up to 48 hours for a response. Please do your best to plan ahead and bring your questions to our in-person classes, so that all students can hear and benefit from the response.

For support with assignments, students must connect with the instructor no later than 48 hours (2 days) before the assignment is due.

Plagiarism, Cheating, and Academic Dishonesty

If plagiarism, cheating, or academic dishonesty can be documented, the penalty will be an automatic “zero” on the assignment in question, and can result in expulsion from the college.
