EVALUATION OF LEARNING

DESCRIPTION		WEIGHTING
(a) Attendance: Students will be graded 6% for attendance in circle and will be deducted 1% for each class that they arrive late for class online.		72%
(b) Group Presentations: (c) Each student will facilitate class with a theme (including opening and closing circle). You are encouraged to come up with a topic (ie wellness, Indigenization, language etc) for discussion, facilitate a workshop, choose a video, introduce a website or present something that you are passionate about. Once you have a plan, you will meet and discuss ideas you have for your presentations with the instructor and elder(s). This should be done in pairs. You are encouraged to be creative and to take risks while being safe and respectful. Our classes are only 80 minutes in length so students must tailor presentations within this time frame or have consensus within the class to extend class time. I am sure that you will all have some great ideas, but please discuss them with the instructor before finalizing your presentation.		28%
If you have a concern about a grade you have received for an evaluation, please come and see me as soon as possible. Refer to the Grade Review and Appeals policy for more information.	TOTAL	100%

If you have a concern about a grade you have received for an evaluation, please come and see me as soon as possible. Refer to the Grade Review and Appeals policy for more information.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

This course is an experiential, relational course that is designed to assist students in their academic journey. Respecting Circle teachings, confidentiality, and values of love, respect, honor, trust and honesty are foundational in this course. Please notify the instructor in advance, when possible, if you cannot attend the class.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
