INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME:	Dr. Michelle Bass
EMAIL:	BassM@camosun.bc.ca
OFFICE:	Virtual
HOURS:	Email to arrange an appointment

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

This course introduces students to evidence-based practices and effective counselling strategies to support recovery from mental health and substance use challenges. Through the use of case studies and experiential learning, students acquire skills and competencies to facilitate recovery. Students will learn specific approaches including stages of change theory, motivational interviewing, cognitive behavioral therapy, trauma-informed practice, and relapse management.

Note: Only open to students in the Interprofessional Mental Health and Addictions program.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- explicate the philosophical principles and theoretical orientations underlying different approaches to recovery from mental health and substance use challenges.
- apply evidence-based interventions, strategies, and best practice models for promoting positive change in individuals.
- apply appropriate interventions to support families affected by addiction and mental illness.

- d) demonstrate knowledge of physical and medical therapies, including the effects and purpose of psychotropic medications, in order to educate individuals and families.
- e) apply case management processes to support individuals and families in recovery.
- f) evaluate the effectiveness of intervention plans and strategies and make recommendations for change as needed.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
