OFFICE:
HOURS: TBD

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students will engage with the critical debates influencing contemporary mental health practices surrounding the etiology and construction of DSM V categories. The effects of historical, socio-cultural, and political factors on individuals, families, and communities with lived experiences of mental illness and addictions are explored. Students engage with the social construction of diagnosis from multiple perspectives and are encouraged to develop their own orientation to conceptualization, diagnosis, and treatment. Students gain competence in recognizing the behavioural symptoms of common, major, and persistent mental health disorders and are introduced to evidence-informed psychosocial and pharmacological treatments to facilitate recovery.

NOTE: Restricted to Interprofessional Mental Health & Addictions students only

PRE OR COREQUISITE(S): N/A

EVALUATION OF LEARNING

APPLIED LEARNING

The IMHA curriculum and this course rely heavily on applied learning and preparing our students to practice in the community. We provide many opportunities for applied learning (experiential activities, self-reflective exercises and simulated learning opportunities, community speakers, and group activities).

INDIGENIZATION

Taking a socio-historical perspective, the construct of diagnosis and its impact on Indigenous communities will be explored. Indigenous perspectives on mental health, wellness, and healing practices will be foregrounded as well as protective factors that promote well-being in Indigenous communities will be addressed. A trauma-informed and culturally sensitive approach is interwoven throughout this course.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

This is an interactive course that uses a variety of teaching/learning strategies, lectures, discussion, cooperative learning, and guest speakers.

Please arrive for planned classes and meetings on time and be prepared to participate in discussions and activities. The course is planned as a continuum for building the skills and knowledge required to meet the competencies for CFCS graduates. Students are required to contact the instructor in advance if they are unable to attend planned classes.

To pass this course, students must satisfactorily complete all assignments and learning activities with a minimum grade of C for each assignment. Written assignments must be submitted via D2L. File names should include your name for easy reference.

Written assignments must be typed and double spaced and follow APA guidelines. Pay particular attention to page numbering and headers, line spacing, font and font size, the citation of source material, and cover-page format. Spelling, grammar, and presentation of the material will be taken into consideration when assignments are graded.

All assignments are to be submitted on designated due dates. In some circumstances, students may arrange with the instructor for an extension of an assignment before the due date. Marks will be deducted (5% per day) if prior arrangements have not been made with the instructor.

Evaluation of participation includes:

- Active and respectful participation
- Regular attendance
- Adequate preparation for classes and course activities
- Cooperation, support, and professionalism in small group, large group, And online discussions activities
- Respectful behavior toward classmates and instructor
- Awareness of own behavior and its effect on others
- Completion of course-related activities

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comply with all College policy regarding academic integrity; which is about honest and ethical behaviour in your education journey. The following guide is designed to help you understand your responsibilities: <https://camosun.libguides.com/academicintegrity/welcome>
Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.13.pdf> for Camosun's Academic Integrity policy and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc.). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started: <https://camosun.ca/services/academic-supports/accessible-learning>

Academic Progress

Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2023-02/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-07/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/services/sexual-violence-support-and-education.
