As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

This course provides students with an overview of the knowledge and skills needed to assess acute and persistent mental health and substance use challenges. Applying a holistic, culturally informed and strength-based collaborative approach to assessment, students evaluate and apply various assessment tools, conduct intake interviews, and synthesize multiple data sources to develop a written biopsychosocial assessment and create a plan matching services to the individual's recovery goals and needs.

NOTE: Restricted to Interprofessional Mental Health & Addictions students only

PRE OR COREQUISITE(S): All of:
B- in IMHA 522

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course, learners will be able to

1. Conduct a psycho-social history and synthesize multiple sources of information to create a biopsychosocial assessment and personalized recovery plan
2. Utilize knowledge of a range of assessment tools to screen for mental illness and substance use as well as to evaluate the psychosocial functioning of the individual and their family
3. Assess and address suicide and other psychosocial risks according to individual needs, organizational protocols, and expectations
4. Apply an evidence-informed conceptual framework to facilitate planning and intervention
5. Apply culturally sensitive and diversity-informed frameworks to assessment and recovery planning

COURSE SCHEDULE, TOPICS, AND ASSOCIATED PREPARATION / ACTIVITY / EVALUATION

The following schedule and course components are subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Students registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) who complete quizzes, tests, and exams with academic accommodations have booking procedures and deadlines with CAL where advanced notice is required. Deadlines can be reviewed on the CAL exams page. <https://camosun.ca/services/academic-supports/accessible-learning/academic-accommodations-exams>

EVALUATION OF LEARNING

APPLIED LEARNING

Students will engage in experiential activities, self-reflective exercises, and simulated learning opportunities to develop and practice skills such as conducting narrative-style assessment interviews, applying a cultural formulation interview, and creating a written biopsychosocial assessment and recovery plan.

INDIGENIZATION

In this course, we will focus on assessment tools and counselling strategies that are congruent with Indigenous ways of being and are culturally relevant. For example, introducing students to narrative-style interviewing, the cultural formulation interview, and using culturally relevant screening tools.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

This is an interactive course that uses a variety of teaching/learning strategies, lectures, discussion, cooperative learning, and guest speakers.

Please arrive for planned classes and meetings on time and be prepared to participate in discussions and activities. The course is planned as a continuum for building the skills and knowledge required to meet the competencies for CFCS graduates. Students are required to contact the instructor in advance if they are unable to attend planned classes.

To pass this course, students must satisfactorily complete all assignments and learning activities with a minimum grade of C for each assignment. Written assignments must be submitted via D2L. File names should include your name for easy reference.

Written assignments must be typed and double spaced and follow APA guidelines. Pay particular attention to page numbering and headers, line spacing, font and font size, the citation of source material, and cover-page format. Spelling, grammar, and presentation of the material will be taken into consideration when assignments are graded.

All assignments are to be submitted on designated due dates. In some circumstances, students may arrange with the instructor for an extension of an assignment before the due date. Marks will be deducted (5% per day) if prior arrangements have not been made with the instructor.

Evaluation of participation includes:

- Active and respectful participation
- Regular attendance
- Adequate preparation for classes and course activities
- Cooperation, support, and professionalism in small group, large group, And online discussions activities
- Respectful behavior toward classmates and instructor
- Awareness of own behavior and its effect on others
- Completion of course-related activities

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comply with all College policy regarding academic integrity; which is about honest and ethical behaviour in your education journey. The following guide is designed to help you understand your responsibilities: <https://camosun.libguides.com/academicintegrity/welcome>
Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.13.pdf> for Camosun's Academic Integrity policy and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc.). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started: <https://camosun.ca/services/academic-supports/accessible-learning>

Academic Progress

Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2023-02/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Course Withdrawals Policy

Grading Policy

Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.5.pdf> for further details about grading.

Grade Review and Appeals

Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.14.pdf> for policy relating to requests for review and appeal of grades.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-07/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/services/sexual-violence-support-and-education. To contact the Office of Student Support: oss@camosun.ca or by phone: 250-370-3046 or 250-370-3841

Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College's Student Misconduct Policy at <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.
