Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable explanation in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student.

INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Dr Tanis Farish
EMAIL: farisht@camosun.ca
OFFICE: PISE 212f
HOURS: Tuesdays 11-12:20 PM; Thursdays 1-2:20pm

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Students will study introductory quantitative, qualitative, and mixed-method research approaches to health and human performance. Students will focus on methods and design; measurement issues; statistical analysis; interpretation of literature; and analytical procedures used for research in sport, health, and exercise science.

PREREQUISITE(S): One of: C in Pre-Calculus 11; C in Foundations of Math 11; C in MATH 073; C in MATH 077; C+ in MATH 072 or C+ in MATH 075
CO-REQUISITE(S): None
EXCLUSION(S): None

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- Explain the nature and purpose of research as it relates to sport, health, exercise science and wellness.
- Explain the underlying assumptions with both qualitative and quantitative research and be able to discuss the characteristics of both approaches.
- Describe the methodologies of both qualitative and quantitative approaches.
- Discuss the ethical issues and requirements in doing human research.
- Explain a range of data gathering techniques.
- Apply statistical procedures to data.
- Demonstrate the ability to read a variety of research approaches and respond to the research in a critically constructive fashion.
- Demonstrate the ability to communicate research in an oral, written and visual manner.
- Formulate research hypotheses based on review of the research literature and other sources of information.
- Develop a research design, proposal and project.

REQUIRED MATERIALS & RECOMMENDED PREPARATION / INFORMATION

Refer to the Grade Review and Appeals policy for more information. <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.14.pdf>

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

ATTENDANCE: Students are expected to review lectures and participate in class discussions. While abbreviated lecture notes and other resources are easily accessible at any time through D2L, it is impossible to duplicate the discussion, activities, and interactions that take place in the classroom.

If a student is absent, the student is responsible for any information missed regarding lecture material, group discussions, exam format/content and dates. Students should obtain any missed information from their peers before scheduling an appointment with the Instructor during their office hours.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: A 10% deduction per day will be taken for late assignments (up to a maximum of five days). If a student expects to be absent on the day an assignment is due, arrangements must be made to hand in the assignment early or to have it submitted in class (or to D2L) the day it's due. Research posters and poster presentations must be completed by the last scheduled day for presentations; a grade of ZERO will be given for all incomplete assignments after the final day of scheduled presentations.

ACADEMIC WRITING: Papers and / or assignments that are deemed unacceptable* by the Instructor will be returned and receive an automatic 10% deduction on the grading. Papers and / or assignments will receive a 10% per day deduction thereafter, to a maximum of five days. *Reasons that an Instructor may deem an item unacceptable include but are not limited to the following: grammar; spelling; content; punctuation and inappropriate referencing / citations.

ARRIVING LATE TO EXAMS: If a student arrives late to an exam after the exam has begun and no other student has left the room, then the student may be allowed to write the exam with the time remaining (note no extra time will be given). If a student arrives late to an exam and another student has already left the room, then the student may not be allowed to write the exam and a grade of zero will be granted.

MISSING EXAMS OR OTHER ASSESSMENTS: If a student is unable to complete a quiz or course assessment through no fault of their own for medical or other reasons, this must be discussed with the instructor in advance, or within 24 hours of the missed evaluation. Examples of valid reasons for missing an exam or evaluation include, but are not limited to, medical emergencies or illness; death in the immediate family (death certificate required); an intercollegiate trip (note from the Athletic Director, Head Therapist, or Coach required) and other significant personal occurrences. If a student who is absent has not made arrangements with the Instructor in advance or within 24 hours of the missed assessment, he or she will be unable to make up the missed evaluation.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. To contact the Office of Student Support: oss@camosun.ca or by phone: 250-370-3046 or 250-3703841

Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College’s Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College’s expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.

Changes to this Syllabus: Every effort has been made to ensure that information in this syllabus is accurate at the time of publication. The College reserves the right to change courses if it becomes necessary so that course content remains relevant. In such cases, the instructor will give the students clear and timely notice of the changes.
