CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Mark 420 focuses on strengthening marketing-related competencies learned throughout earlier coursework using project management practices to design and implement a service-learning project for an international not-for-profit organization. In addition, students will develop, implement and monitor the marketing project using cross-functional thinking, teamwork, communication and cultural sensitivity.

This blended format course will involve a significant time commitment, and students are expected to approach their project with professionalism and enthusiasm.

As a marketing team you will have the opportunity to work with an international service agency and local community groups to apply project management practices to a specific client oriented marketing initiative.

PREREQUISITE(S):

C in BUS 220, BUS 360, and MARK 365 and one of C in MARK 340 and MARK 385

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of the course a student will be able to:

- 1) Demonstrate a working knowledge of the concepts, methods and execution of the marketing project using project management practices, tools and software
- 2) Develop problem analysis skills, abilities and capability to translate a marketing problem into a feasible research/ analysis project.
- 3) Integrate marketing concepts and practices achieved in other courses with marketing challenges experienced in international not-for-profit organizations.
- 4) Implement a process to ensure effective communication and consultation is undertaken with the client organization to generate ongoing support for the project objectives.
- 5) Report and present project findings to not-for-profit organization.
- 6) Develop effective management, interaction, teamwork, and professionalism skills.

EVALUATION OF LEARNING

This course is taught in a blended format where class lectures, lab, online and field-class practice are combined to maximize project management effectiveness. There will be initial formal class meetings, to set the projects in motion and outline the project management process. Most of the class time will be spent on directing the marketing project. Students will share their experiences, challenges and recommendations. Presentations will be a part of the process. The instructor will facilitate and direct discussion, and will provide feedback and direction and make available resource materials for student use.

A final course grade will be determined based on the following:

| | Individual Value | Team Value |
|----------------------------------|------------------|------------|
| Team Project: | | |
| Project Proposal | | Required |
| Project Charter/ Planning Report | 10% | 5% |
| Mid-term Status Report | 5% | 5% |

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

As outlined in class discussions and assignment instructions

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

Assignment formatting. The School of Business uses APA style for formatting assignments and citing references. Proper citations and formatting using APA style will be required. See Camosun College (2018) Library Citation Guides retrieved from: <http://camosun.ca.libguides.com/apa>.

- Where required by your instructor, submit all assignments into the D2L drop box by your last name.
- In text citations for quotes, paraphrasing, and references must be consistent with APA standards.
- Grammar, spelling, style, document formatting, citations and all referencing using APA standards will be assessed in your mark.
- All submitted work must be properly referenced to sources where required by your instructor.
- Unless otherwise specified, you are to submit your own work, any work collaborated (unless permitted by the course) will be considered in violation of the college's Student Conduct Policy. See Camosun College (2021) Academic Integrity Policy

If you are uncertain or have any questions regarding academic integrity, please do not hesitate to discuss these with your instructor.

Deadlines and exams. You must submit your assignments on the due date or as announced. A grade of zero will be assigned to late submissions. There are no additional assignments or make-up exams of any kind if you performed poorly on an assignment, midterm or final exam.

EXAM DATES WILL NOT BE RESCHEDULED. Non-attendance on scheduled exam dates results in a zero grade. Exceptions will be made only for medical reasons or extenuating circumstances that must be submitted and then accepted by the instructor. Please advise your instructor promptly.

Tests and Final Exams: Students are expected to write tests and final exams at the scheduled time and place. In emergency circumstances, a student may write a test or final examination before or after the scheduled time if the student would otherwise be unable to complete the program or course. Exceptions due to emergency circumstances, such as unavoidable employment commitments, health problems, or unavoidable family crises, require the approval of the appropriate instructor. Holidays or scheduled flights are not considered emergencies. The student may be required to provide verification of the emergency circumstance.

Medical notes must be dated, signed, and be written on letterhead or prescription paper imprinted with the physician's name and address. Notes are accepted from Physician (GP or medical specialist), Nurse Practitioner, Psychiatrist, Psychologist, Counsellor and Aboriginal Elder. Notes from RNs, chiropractors, massage therapists, etc., will not be accepted. Electronic notes will not be accepted. Medical documentation must be received no later than 1 week after your absence.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures” (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
