COURSE SCHEDULE, TOPICS, AND ASSOCIATED PREPARATION / ACTIVITY / EVALUATION

This is a blended class of online and in-person instruction. In person drop-in class: Wednesday and/or Thursday 12:30-3:30pm; or by video chat/phone appointment arranged with the instructor.

For each unit, students are expected to prepare for the Unit Final Test by completing the Unit Review. Students are encouraged to consult with their instructor for authorization to write the Unit Final Test and proceed to the next unit if the score is 75% or better. Students rewrite the Unit Final Test for scores less than 75%. Calculators may not be used unless approved by the instructor. Students registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) who complete quizzes, tests, and exams with academic accommodations have booking procedures and deadlines with CAL where advanced notice is required. Deadlines can be reviewed on the CAL exams page.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

This is a self-paced course. Students have the flexibility to follow an individually adaptable timeline to complete the learning outcomes and unit tests. The course is a combination of 6 online, blended and/or in-person hours per week with an expectation of studying another 4 hours per week. The course completion time will vary for each student, depending on several factors, including students' current level of math skills, motivation, learning rate, and time devoted to study. Students have a responsibility to work hard, attend class and/or meetings, and ask for support when needed.

SCHOOL AND DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

Community Learning Partnerships (CLP), a department of the School of Access, brings education to community-based sites to make it easier for students to begin or return to learning in a less intimidating place than on the college campus. Students can build or refresh their skills to meet admission requirements and be successful in other college programs. Students learn in a comfortable environment with other adults with similar backgrounds and get help from friendly and compassionate Camosun instructors and staff.
