COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

1. Recognize, discuss, and discriminate by ear traits of major musical styles of rock and blues music.
2. Research and study masterworks of rock and blues for elements of musical style and relate findings in written discourse.
3. Converse about select major musical styles in rock and blues idioms and about the musical contributors who express these styles.
4. Place significant musical contributors to blues and rock in relationship to one another geographically, chronologically, politically, spiritually, and musically.
5. Critically review and assess quality in live and recorded musical performances of original and covered music in contemporary popular style.

Course Content and Schedule

(This section can include: class hours, lab hours, out of class requirements and/or dates for quizzes, exams, lectures, labs, seminars, practicums, etc.)

Class times: Wednesdays and Thursdays 8:30am - 9:50am via zoom

A) -Students will research innovators in blues and rock, dates TBA.

You will look into their life histories and examine in detail the innovation they bring to their genre including singing style, song structure and lyrical innovation. These will be assigned randomly. Each student will then present their findings and play examples for the class. There will be four of these presentations 15 minutes long worth 10 marks each for a total of 40 marks for the term. Please submit your presentation and bibliography on the day of your presentation to D2L

B)-Students will be required to read a biography of an artist of your own choice, in the rock or blues genre and write a book report, due on April 14th. 1000 words.
This will be worth 15 marks.

C)-Research Assignment worth 20 marks - due March 3rd

This requires listening to and comparing four artists of your choice. Please apply the following criteria.

- One artist or band that catches your ear on the radio that you are not familiar with.
- One artist or band that you find through a video on television.
- One artist or band that you find randomly on the internet
(Important: not to be recommended by anyone)
- One artist or band that you see live streaming, from seeing their name (not word of mouth or your friend's choice.) Note DJs are not musicians in the same 'people playing their music live, sense!!!!'

Answer the following:

1. What industry affiliation does each group or artist have?

Indie or Major?

2. Production style? Did they use an established producer or are they self produced? How does that effect your like or dislike of them?
3. How does the media perceive them? What is their story?
4. Marketing strategy? Web sites? Friends? Can you download their music? How important is image? What demographic are they targeting? Video? Bio?
5. Influences? Look at one song from each artist or band. Look at lyrics and at who the writer/composer is. (please include)
Are they musically or lyrically innovative? Describe their genre. What makes them appealing?
6. Profile. Is this artist or band international? Domestic? Who manages them and who distributes their product? How many recordings do they have?
7. Overall Summary. What comparisons can you draw between your examples? Do you see a trend forming? What differences have you discovered? What attracted you to these artists? Would you buy their recording or go and see them live?
8. Comments. What are your observations of the music industry?
9. Bibliography. MLA style sheet is a good reference.
The presentation style of this assignment is up to you and will depend on the materials gathered.
Each point must be considered.

D) - The final listening exam TBA and will be worth 20 marks

- 5 marks are reserved for attendance and contribution to the class.

Please note: Assignments not submitted by due date will receive a zero unless other arrangements have been made.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

<http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/>

Academic Integrity

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.13.pdf> for policy regarding academic expectations and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Progress

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.1.pdf> for further details on how Camosun College monitors students' academic progress and what steps can be taken if a student is at risk of not meeting the College's academic progress standards.

Course Withdrawals Policy

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.2.pdf> for further details about course withdrawals. For deadline for fees, course drop dates, and tuition refund, please visit <http://camosun.ca/learn/fees/#deadlines>.

Grading Policy

Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf> for further details about grading.

Grade Review and Appeals

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the “Attendance” section under “Registration Policies and Procedures”

(<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
