INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Hazel Booth
EMAIL: BoothH@camosun.ca
OFFICE: 2nd floor-ask at the reception
HOURS: Wednesday in person 0800-0830 and 11:30-1200. Please email me in advance and let me know that you will be there in person to meet me. Alternative dates and times can also be arranged by sending me an email. Phone or video can also be arranged with prior notice.

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Learners will extend and develop their foundational knowledge, skills, and dispositions for effective nurse-client therapeutic relationships in situations that are difficult, contentious, or distressing. Learners explore the influence of power and oppression on individual and population health. Learners will examine historical patterns of racism, ethnocentrism, colonialism, and neocolonialism in relation to health and health care systems. Social justice, interprofessional collaboration, and relational ethics are used to promote a culturally safe and compassionate nursing practice. Learners will gain competences to provide care for critically ill and dying persons, encompassing physical, spiritual, emotional, and social needs in a person and family-centered approach.

PREREQUISITE(S): COM in NURS 290

PRE/CO-REQUISITE(S): C in NURS 332

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

- a) articulate the components of culturally safe, competent, ethical and compassionate nursing care in difficult, contentious and distressing situations.

- b) engage in scholarly critical reflection to inform nursing practice applying foundational curricular perspectives.
- c) incorporate diverse frameworks to enhance and synthesize understanding of complexity in relational practice.
- d) develop strategies to enact competent, ethical, and compassionate nursing care in difficult, contentious, and distressing situations.
- e) critically analyze the impact of conflict on interprofessional team functioning in the context of rapidly changing or crisis situations.
- f) integrate relational ethics into effective clinical decision making in order to enhance quality of care.
- g) integrate knowledge of pathophysiology with clinical decision making in the context of health crisis, and/or end-of-life care, to enable therapeutic presence and competent care.
- h) identify nurse's role in the delivery of care regarding choices at end-of-life, including advance care planning.
- i) integrate principles of relational practice and theoretical frameworks to develop personal strategies to support patients and families related to end-of-life.
- j) evaluate the potential for intersecting social identities to impact health and wellness of individuals.
- k) recognize and develop responses to racism, neocolonialism, and ethnocentrism as it occurs in the practice setting.
- l) discuss the importance of applying a strength-based approach to Indigenous peoples' health, as a way of reducing colonizing approaches such as judgement, marginalization, and stigmatization of Indigenous peoples.
- m) analyze the implications of power and oppression on Indigenous people's individual and population health, in the context of colonization and residential schools in Canada on Indigenous peoples' health.
- n) formulate strategies to nurture cultural safety, applying principles of social justice to plan de-colonizing care.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to comply with all College policy regarding academic integrity; which is about honest and ethical behaviour in your education journey. The following guide is designed to help you understand your responsibilities: <https://camosun.libguides.com/academicintegrity/welcome>
Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-1.13.pdf> for Camosun's Academic Integrity policy and details for addressing and resolving matters of academic misconduct.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc.). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-07/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <https://camosun.ca/sites/default/files/2021-05/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/services/sexual-violence-support-and-education.
