COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Define criminal psychology and discuss the general relationships between psychology and the law.
2. Critically describe research, theories and models identifying and explaining how criminal behaviour is acquired and maintained in juveniles and adults, including aggression, violence, homicide and assault, sexual offences, criminal psychopathy, drug/alcohol use, property offences, and public order offences.
3. Explain the theories and research related to prevention and treatment of adult and juvenile criminal behaviours, including correctional psychology.
4. Identify developmental risk factors as well as biological, psychological and social factors (including drugs and alcohol) contributing to criminal behaviour.
5. Define mental disorder, and identify those disorders that are related to juvenile and adult criminal behaviour, including anti-social personality disorder, conduct disorder, oppositional defiant disorder, as well as specific anxiety disorders, dissociative disorders, mood disorders and psychotic disorders.
6. Discuss how those diagnosed with mental disorders interact with the Canadian criminal justice system with specific reference to the Canadian Mental Health Act and Section 16 of the Criminal Code of Canada.
7. Apply bio-psycho-social theories to case studies and real life examples of criminal behaviour.
8. Work collaboratively and independently to research criminal behaviour topics/issues in Canada and British Columbia and present this research, making recommendations regarding prevention and intervention.

Recommendations

There is an approximately is a one hour and fifty minute lecture directly followed by a fifty minute seminar comprising PSYC 252-001 every week on Monday afternoons.

Please e-mail if you are unable to attend any of the lectures or seminars prior to the start of class.

As mentioned above, course material will be posted to D2L throughout the semester. To be successful in this course, it is recommended that students 1) attend lectures and seminar each week and preview any pre-recorded lecture clips; 2) read chapters and posted lecture notes making additional notes from text; 3) complete practice review quizzes/assignments for selected chapter; 4) stay up to date with readings and course assignments; and 5) use test study guides and lecture material to review and prepare for tests.

Unless noted by the instructor, pre-recorded lecture clips highlight and summarize key points from text/lecture and does not replace all the information covered in lectures. Seminar times will provide opportunities for students to work on course assignments, and review/complete key lecture points. A week by week schedule is available in the next section of this course syllabus and on D2L.

COURSE SCHEDULE, TOPICS, AND ASSOCIATED PREPARATION / ACTIVITY / EVALUATION

The following schedule and course components are subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor. Changes to this schedule will be discussed in lecture and posted on D2L.

We meet weekly in Young 310 from 12:30pm to 2:20pm and then move to Ewing 115 from 2:30 to 3:20pm.

Instructor's NOTE about YOUR Final GRADE

1. Please think of every test, practice review quiz, and course assignment as your best opportunity to improve your grade. There are no additional assignments offered to increase grades in this course.
2. I reserve the right to ask you to resubmit work, or to show me extra material related to your work.

COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

All tests and course assignment descriptions are posted in D2L and in the D2L calendar.

1. Tests (50%): There will be four in-class tests covering text chapters, assigned readings, and lecture material. These tests will not be cumulative and will be comprised of multiple choice, matching, true/false, fill in the blank, and short answer questions. Make-ups for tests will only be arranged with the permission of the instructor prior to or on the test date.

2. Research Papers (18% + 5% = 23%)

Research Paper Proposal (5%): Students are asked to submit a research paper proposal that includes a thesis statement and at least 4 key research references (from the last 10 years) in order to provide an opportunity for instructor feedback and ensure that the research paper will meet APA research writing standards. Proposals will not exceed three and half pages double-spaced (excluding title page and references). See D2L for example research paper proposals. Students can submit this assignment earlier than the due date.

Research Paper (APA) (18%): A research paper gathers the most recent relevant information about a topic, organizes it and presents a critical summary of findings. This paper has a thesis. A typical topic would be the current state of theories or models of the cause of anti-social personality disorder. The paper would present research supporting models and would integrate understanding about the supporting evidence and provide a position or recommendation linked to thesis on this topic. This paper can be between eight and 10 pages long, exclusive of the title page and reference list. It needs to include "several" sources (10 is required), mostly primary sources (academic journals). The reference list should contain only sources actually used for the paper. See the Research Paper Guidelines in the D2L materials. Students can submit this assignment earlier than the due date.

2. Team Presentations In-Seminar (1% + 14% = 15%)

Team Presentation Outline (1%)

All teams will submit a detailed outline of planned presentation. This includes all visuals and media clips for instructor review. If this does not occur teams will not present on the assigned day and will receive a mark deduction up to 5%. Students can submit this assignment earlier than the due date.

Team Presentations (14%): You will be selecting a team of no more than 4 people and developing a short presentation of no more than 12 minutes (this includes question and answer time) on a crime topic that is both local (BC, Canada) and global (glocal) chosen from a PSYC 252 list based on course material. See D2L for example presentation topics.

3. D2L Chapter Practice Reviews & Discussion/Assignment Questions – (12%) Most weeks, students will complete either a practice review quiz or an assignment on the chapter(s) we are working through. These questions and quizzes are designed to highlight key points from text and help prepare students for tests. Students will be provided time to access course practice reviews/assignments in seminar each week.
