COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

Examination and Quizzes: There are 2 examinations in this course. They are composed of short answer, fill in the blank questions, multiple-choice questions, and questions based on class activities and exercises. Students who miss class will find it more difficult to answer midterm and final exam questions. The final exam also has one long answer question.

The midterm is worth 20% of the final grade and the final exam is worth 25% of the final grade. The final exam is not cumulative.

There are four quizzes in the course. There are no make-up quizzes. Students who miss a quiz need to communicate with the instructor before the next class. Quizzes are based on specific chapters. Students are encouraged to take advantage of practice quizzes available online from the text publisher.

Projects are due at the beginning of the class on assigned due date and time. Projects are to be uploaded into the assignment drop box. Late projects will be penalized 3% per day. Extension requests must be received 24 hours before due date. NOTE: No projects will be accepted 7 days after due date without documentation to support the late submissions.

Completion of the Skill Analysis Project is a course requirement.

Participation

- Be prepared for novel activities in a protected and supportive atmosphere.
- Be prepared also to take considerable responsibility for your own learning. You will be talking personally about your life and listening to classmates talk about their life.
- Active participation in the classroom exercises and discussions allows you to learn on an experiential level as well as a theoretical level - thus facilitating your ability to apply the learning to your personal and professional life.
- It is expected that you will participate actively, helpfully, with sensitivity, and will contribute to the safe and supportive learning environment of yourself and others. Mere attendance is not enough for this course. Many of the skills need active practice.

5% Participation mark is based on:

- attendance
- attentiveness during class
- respectful behavior and conduct toward others and being mindful of the shared learning environment
- participation in class activities
- being prepared for class (doing course readings before class; D2L content)

Confidentiality: Because of the nature of this course, any personal information shared in class and in assignments is to be held in strictest confidence.
