COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

This course is an examination of human flourishing. The student will be introduced to the concepts, models, theories, researchers and research in the field of positive psychology. Topics to be addressed include; emotions, motivation, cognition, relationships, work, leisure, character, culture, money, design and social improvement. The course includes both academic and experiential components. The format of the course consists of lectures, discussions, in-class activities and out of class 'well-being initiatives' (assignments designed to illustrate course concepts and have a positive impact on student's life).

Lecture Attendance

Students are expected to attend all classes and be on time. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to acquire all information given during that class, including notes, hand-outs, changed exam dates, announcements, etc.

Technology

Exams:

No electronic devices are allowed during exams. This includes but is not limited to; computers, electronic dictionaries, electronic translators, cell phones, tablets, smart watches, and other personal electronic devices.

Class:

Student's use of laptops/tablets in class is restricted to note taking. Students using their laptops/tablets for other purposes will have their laptop privileges revoked.

All cell phones must be turned off and put away during class. Exceptions for emergency purposes only must be discussed with the instructor ahead of time.

Students may not use recording devices in the classroom without prior permission of the instructor(students must complete a request form). Should permission for recordings be granted, these recordings are for the student's personal use only, and distribution of recorded material is prohibited.

Exam Procedures

All exams must be written at the scheduled times with the exception of students requiring an accommodation by CAL (Centre for Accessible Learning). It is understood that emergency circumstances do occur (e.g. severe illness or family emergency); for such circumstances accommodation may be offered at the discretion of the instructor, provided the student: a) notifies the instructor in advance of the exam (not after), and b) provides documented evidence of the circumstance (e.g. medical certificate).

If an exam is missed with an excused absence, it is up to the instructor's discretion as to how the mark will be made up.

Be sure not to make travel plans for the end of semester until the final exam schedules are finalized and posted. Please ask any family members who might make travel plans on your behalf to consult you before booking tickets.

Studying

You should plan on a weekly minimum of 6 hours outside of scheduled class time for the completion of readings, assignments, and for general studying.

Reviewing, filling out, and editing your lecture notes right after class is recommended.

Contact the instructor to clarify any confusing concepts.

Distributed studying has been proven to be far more effective than massed practice (cramming).

Testing yourself on the material (answering questions) is far superior to simply rereading notes/textbook.

Class PowerPoint presentations will be uploaded to the class website.

Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College's Student Misconduct Policy at http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.

Changes to this syllabus: Every effort has been made to ensure that information in this syllabus is accurate at the time of publication. The College reserves the right to change courses if it becomes necessary so that course content remains relevant. In such cases, the instructor will give the students clear and timely notice of the changes.

WELL BEING INITIATIVES/POSITIVE PSYCHOLOGY INTERVENTIONS

Well-being initiatives are experiential learning assignments designed to help you explore your life and improve your well-being. Each student will choose and complete initiatives from the 3 sections below. Students may choose to do any number of assignment(s) in each section. Pick the ones that are right for you: Something you can do, resonates with you, and are not currently doing.

Journaling: For many initiatives, you will record your experiences in a journal. Make sure you date each entry. Include who you were with (First name and last initial), what happened, any thoughts and feelings that occurred. Each entry will not exceed a paragraph. This will constitute part of your grade. Append the journal entries to your write-up.

Write up: Many (not all) of the initiatives ask you to complete a write-up. Describe/Reflect on your experience. What was it like? What effect did it have? How did it make you feel emotionally and physically? What would you do differently? And most importantly of all - What did you learn/realize about yourself/your life? (These are questions to stimulate the reflection process. Do not simply answer these questions. Your paper should have a coherent, logical flow)

Length: Most write-ups will be between 350 - 450 words (not including journal entries) unless otherwise specified. Include a word count at the end of your write up.

Grading: Projects will be graded on accuracy, completeness, writing/grammar/organization, and especially level of reflection/ insight.

Each assignment is assessed a point value. Earn at east 100 points to receive 10% possible for that section.

They have assigned due dates. Late assignments/projects are penalized 5% per day.

Note: No assignments/projects will be accepted 1 week after due date.

Submit assignments via D2L drop box unless otherwise specified.

The assignments within a section can be handed in 2 days or more prior to the due date for feedback from the instructor. Please email the instructor if you wish to receive feedback. Students can then resubmit an assignment prior to the section due date.

1. Foundations and Feelings. Due Feb 8th

Passion pursuit 70pts

Select a passion project: Something exciting and important to you that you'd like to accomplish in life. Make it something active (not passive). Make it concrete, measurable and achievable. Not something like 'be successful' – too vague. A career or family/relationship goal is important in life, but not the type of passion project I am looking for in this assignment.

Outline:

Answer each of the following in 1-3 sentences each:

- 1. Provide a detailed concrete description of the project
- 2. Outline the tasks/steps/sub goals that are required to reach it
- 3. Outline the resources/supports you will need to achieve it
- 4. Outline likely obstacles to reaching this goal, and methods for overcoming them

Story:

People like stories. Create a fictional autobiographical story using the elements above describing your journey completing your passion project. Include twists/unexpected surprises, the people/characters along the way, your emotional experiences, things you learned, things you learned to appreciate, etc. Make it fun and exciting. Do not exceed 1500 words for this story.

If you complete this activity you cannot complete "best possible life' below.

Best possible life 40pts

Imagine and describe the best possible life you could have. Think about various areas of your life; career, income, relationships, personality, physical condition, where you live, how you live, leisure, etc. Write-up maximum 400 words. If you complete this activity you cannot complete "Passion pursuit" above.

Positive emotions 40 pts

The student handbook/course pack/readings includes a list of 16 positive emotions. Select 8 that you've experienced and in 1-3 sentences each, describe how you experienced it. What happened to trigger that feeling?

Laughter yoga. 40pts

Attend a local laughter yoga group meeting. Journal and write-up as described above.

https://victorialaughteryogaclub.wordpress.com/laughter-schedule/ Sundays, Mondays and Wednesdays http://www.victoriayoga.com/class/laughter-yoga

Some may suggest a donation for each session.

Pleasant events therapy 70pts

Think about and list the things you enjoy. Schedule at least one of these pleasant events/experiences into each day for a minimum of 30 minutes. They must not be things you typically do. Do not do the same pleasant event each day. They must not be; laughter yoga, spending time on social media, or watching TV. Complete a total of 7 days. Journal and write-up as described above.

Nonverbal actions 40pts

Most assume that our actions are the result of how we feel. Sometimes it is the other way around – our actions trigger feelings. For one day, regardless of how you feel initially, nonverbally act like you are very happy. Stand tall, breath deep, smile regularly, have a spring in your step, make friendly eye contact with others, if appropriate; wave, hug, skip and/or whistle/hum.

At the end of the day reflect on (write) what you did, how easy/difficult it was, others reactions, your feelings, how well you carried out the task. DO NOT do positive things for others; that is a different assignment. (Caution; females, happiness towards unfamiliar males may be misinterpreted)

2. Thoughts and Character. Due March 12th

Meditate. 70pts

Choose a form of meditation (see below) and meditate each day for 10 consecutive days. Meditate for at least 5 minutes the first day and progressively add at least one minute each day. After each session, describe your experience and progress in your journal. Write-up as described above.

How to: Follow the directions in the course pack. In general: Find a quiet comfortable place. Empty your mind. Let all thoughts and images disappear. If something pops into your head let it in and pass right through - empty your mind again.

Try one of four different kinds of meditation.

- Focused meditation. Some people find it easier to prevent other thoughts by focusing on one simple thought; a word, image, their breathing.
- Mindfulness meditation. Watch your thoughts and feelings without judging them. Nonattachment.
- Loving-kindness meditation. Fill your mind and heart with love and kindness for others.
- Guided meditation; find an audio file on the internet that takes your through a meditation session.

Add a positive perspective

This one is for people who regularly/daily experience events that they think of as stressful, frustrating, scary, difficult, unfair, depressing. It is not wise to ignore or deny the reality of these situations, but it can be helpful to add a positive spin. When life challenges pop up, try thinking about them in your regular way, then add the phrase 'yes and...' (or 'and yet...') followed by one these additional thoughts:

'it could be worse'

'overall my life is still pretty good'

'this won't matter a year from now'

'this is an opportunity to learn/grow'

'difficult things happen – that's just life'

'there are others worse off than me'

'this won't matter a year from now'

'what doesn't kill you makes you stronger'

'this is funny when you think about it'

'this is an opportunity to make things better'

Select two of the above that make most sense to you – you like the most. For three consecutive days whenever a negative event happens and you think the scary, difficult, frustrating thoughts add the 'yes and' phrase and your new perspective. Set a notification on your phone to go off in the morning and early afternoon to remind you to carry out this 'yes and' activity throughout the day. Complete a write up as described above.

50 gratitudes 40pts

Write out 50 things in your life you are grateful for. For each one, give a one sentence explanation as to why it is great/you are grateful. For example: Bike rides; Gives me exercise, time to think and fresh air. Include people, personal qualities, activities, possessions, aspects of society, etc.

This activity does not require a journal with journal entries.

Write up: Include the list and, in approximately 5 sentences, describe/reflect on your experience and its impact.

Positive person interview 40pts

Think about someone who is the most positive person you know. Ask for an interview. Over the phone or face to face (preferred) ask them about their life and personal philosophy. What contributes to their positive outlook? Is it always positive? How would they describe what's important in life? Their personal philosophy? Write-up includes their important responses as well as your observations, realizations/insights.

Gratitude letter 40pts

Think about the people in your life that have significantly contributed to your life in some way. Write a Gratitude Letter to one of these individuals. Describing in concrete terms what they did, how they impacted you and why you are grateful. Tell them what you are doing now and how you often remember their efforts. Make it come alive. Then give the letter to the person, or better yet, read your letter aloud to the person. Write-up as described above plus the actual letter.

Strengths 40pts

Discover your strengths by filling out an online questionnaire at www.authentichappiness.sas.upenn.edu/ Mouse over "Questionnaires' tab. Find VIA Signature Strengths Questionnaire and click on it (NOT the brief strengths test). You will have to enter an e-mail address and create a password. This will take about 30-60 minutes - about 240 questions. View your results.

- 1. Include a screen shot of your results
 - Writeup: 200 250 words.
- 2. Reflect/comment on any or all of your top 5 (signature) strengths,
- 3. How do you use, or could you use, your signature strengths?
- 4. Reflect/comment on a strength that ended up near the bottom.

3. Lifestyle and world April 12th

Physical activity: 70pts

Select one new physical activity. Join a dance class, a new sport, visit weight room, take up swimming, or establish a walking schedule (complete a minimum of ½ hour each day). Choose something you do not typically do. Do this for 8 consecutive sessions. If you have health concerns consult your doctor beforehand. Ease into the activity. Journal entries should include; date, what you did, where and with whom. Write-up as described above.

Seven conversations. 70pts

Have a pleasant conversation with seven different family members or friends. Each conversation should be at least 15 minutes and include just the two of you. No phoning, emailing nor texting. These conversations must be with 7 different people and must be important/meaningful conversations. Provide a brief overview 2-3 sentences, of each conversation. Then write-up as described above.

Positivity portfolio 40pts

Compile a photo album of the positive and meaningful things in your life. You can organize it by time or event. Be sure to include possessions you enjoy, places you like or would like to visit, people (family, friends) activities you engage in, pets, foods, etc. No more than 3 photos per category. Be selective. Write-up; some comments, feelings, observations about your portfolio and the process of completing it. Max 150 words. (Fredrickson p.214)

Forest bathing shinrin-yoku 40pts

Find a green space (or ocean front) near your residence. It must have trees and bushes (and ideally water). Complete a 30 minute (minimum) walk in nature on 2 different days. Let your attention focus on the natural world. No journal for this one. In 3 or 4 sentences, describe the nature area you visited. Write up; describe your experiences (as described above). 200 - 250 words.

Positive world: social innovation. 70pts

Research and write about one social innovation. This could be a new technology, idea, social initiative or program. It must be something new, something that helps the world and something you are interested in. You will give a 2-minute verbal presentation to the class, answer questions, and hand in a one-page report (in point form) with at least one reference.

Some possible sources of ideas: Clinton global initiative, Gates foundation. On YouTube: TED talks, Idea City, Undecided with Matt Ferrell, Huge if True,

Every student has to complete a different initiative so inform your instructor of your topic early.

Conscious acts of kindness. 70pts

Each day, for 10 consecutive days, commit a conscious act of kindness. For example: Make dinner for someone, look after their kids for an evening, do one of their chores for them, express gratitude, sincere compliment, help out, do a favour, etc. Plan out the acts ahead of time. It has to be something you do not ordinarily do. You have to complete 5 different acts before you can repeat an act with a different person in a different place. Journal entries; date, what you did and where, what happened. Then write up as described above. Write up 300 - 350 words.

Fun with friends 40 pts

Plan an event/outing with friends. You will collectively engage in a fun activity. It has to be something you haven't done in a long while or ever. There must be at least 4 of you. It has to be active (not passive like watching a movie together or sitting and talking). Examples include: horseback riding, board game night, dance club, skiing, build your own pizza night, escape room, pool/billiards, canoe/kayaking, skywalk, pottery class, dart tournament, bowling, ax throwing, poker night, climbing wall, etc.

Write up as described above.
