INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Dr. Stephen Fielding

EMAIL: FieldingS@camosun.ca

OFFICE: Y320

HOURS: In person or via Collaborate on Wednesdays and Fridays, 11:30 – 12:20. Or by appointment.

Instructor Bio:

Growing up in a railway family, I spent my childhood moving around, from Niagara Falls to Fort Erie, Sarnia, and finally, Winnipeg. I've also lived in Vancouver, Toronto, and Rome, Italy. I completed my Bachelor's degree at the University of Winnipeg, followed by a Master of Arts from Simon Fraser University and Ph.D. from the University of Victoria.

I have taught History and Religion at four colleges and universities and published research on a wide range of topics, including immigration, multiculturalism, sport, gender, religion, and ethnic food. My wife is from Italy and we are parents of a 13-year-old girl and ~~little monkey~~ 8-year-old boy.

An understanding of the world's religious traditions, particularly of their similarities and differences, is critical to the development of a person's worldview and grasp of their place in the diverse human landscape. I am looking forward to exploring Religions of the East together this semester

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

An introductory survey of Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Chinese religions, and Shintiosm, this course explores the sources, beliefs (including representative texts), and practices of these religions. The traditions of each will be studied in their cultural and political contexts from both historical and contemporary perspectives.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course a student will be able to: 1. Explain the contexts/historical settings in which Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Chinese religions, and Shintoism arose. 2. List major dates, events, and places central to each. 3. Describe the historical linkage/relationships among them. 4. Summarize their major beliefs, teachings, ideals, and practices. 5. Explain variations/splits/divisions in each tradition. 6. Analyze their similarities/differences. 7. Compare/contrast each religion's view of the others. 8. Evaluate their relationship to and impact on the world today.

REQUIRED MATERIALS & RECOMMENDED PREPARATION / INFORMATION

(a) Textbook

Roy C. Amore, Amir Hussain, and Willard G. Oxtoby, A Concise Introduction to World Religions, 4th ed.

COURSE SCHEDULE, TOPICS, AND ASSOCIATED PREPARATION / ACTIVITY / EVALUATION

The following schedule and course components are subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Students registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) who complete quizzes, tests, and exams with academic accommodations have booking procedures and deadlines with CAL where advanced noticed is required. Deadlines scan be reviewed on the CAL exams page. <http://camosun.ca/services/accessible-learning/exams.html>

Lectures: Wednesdays 9:30-11:20

The lectures aim to follow a similar structure to the textbook. Read actively the assigned textbook readings for each lecture, ideally having guide questions beside you (These are the questions you consider as you read the material or the ones provided in the textbook), and always be aware of the major themes of each chapter. The themes are listed in the textbook on the first page of every chapter. Students who do the required readings each week and view the lectures will gain a stronger understanding of eastern world religions, be more likely to enjoy the course, and be well positioned for success.

As mentioned, on certain occasions during the semester, leaders from our local religious communities (i.e. a Buddhist priest) will visit the class for an online presentation. These visits are a highlight of the course because they generate interactive and personable discussions with a practicing expert in the faith. As such engagements can be arranged, the lecture schedule and content will change accordingly.

Seminars: Fridays 9:30-10:20 (Section A) and 10:30-11:20 (Section B)

During a seminar, we will discuss assigned materials, primarily the textbook chapters dedicated to a religious tradition. You are strongly recommended to take notes as you read and to write down questions that arise as you encounter and explore the religious belief systems. One or two students will facilitate each discussion (see below for more information).

Detailed Instructions about the Seminars

The seminar component of the course is critically important to the student (and instructor) learning experience, which is reflected in its weighting as 20 percent of your final grade. During the seminars, you will discuss and sometimes debate the assigned seminar materials. These are mostly based on the textbook chapters, sometimes in addition to other sources (eg. Scripture excerpts) made available on D2L

As part of your seminar preparedness, I strongly recommend that you first read the pre-set questions on D2L and then explore the readings themselves. For weekly course instructions and details, go to the D2L Course Site → My Tools → Content

*Students who miss three or more seminars will forfeit their entire participation grade.

(a) Assignments (none)

(b) Tests – In the span of fourteen weeks, REL 102 covers a remarkable number of religions and their traditions, philosophies, and practices. To simplify this venture, the course material is organized into two (2) tests and a final exam.

Each test and the final consists of:

- i) Short Answer and Multiple Choice questions, which will require you to revisit your lecture notes and textbook readings.
- ii) Long Answer Questions. The purpose of these paragraph-style inquiries is to encourage the student to go well beyond identifying and reciting the course material to apply their growing understanding of Eastern World Religions. More specifically, these questions will test your knowledge of the key religious concepts, practices, and systems by asking you to compare and contrast them and/or imagine how followers of a religious tradition will respond to certain contexts.

(c) Exams— There is a final exam in REL 102.

Please do not make travel plans for April until after the final exam schedule is released.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

A short note about academic honesty:

All work that a student completes in REL 102 must be their own and an original composition. Copying from the internet, printed sources, or another student is a serious misconduct. See the Camosun Calendar 2015-6 (pp. 32-39) for full policies and penalties with regards to plagiarism, cheating, and other unacceptable student conduct.

Mandatory Attendance for First Class Meeting of Each Course

Camosun College requires mandatory attendance for the first class meeting of each course. If you do not attend, and do not provide your instructor with a reasonable reason in advance, you will be removed from the course and the space offered to the next waitlisted student. For more information, please see the "Attendance" section under "Registration Policies and Procedures" (<http://camosun.ca/learn/calendar/current/procedures.html>) and the Grading Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-1-programming-and-instruction/e-1.5.pdf>.

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
