COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

In Class Tests

The tests will consist of approximately 40 multiple-choice questions and students will have 80 minutes to answer all forty questions. It should be noted that the tests may have 1-5 bonus questions – also multiple choice – in addition to the 40 test questions. The purpose of having the bonus questions is to give students an opportunity to score 100% or higher on a given test. It should be emphasized that students do not need to do the bonus questions if they do not want to. However, it is strongly encouraged that students at least attempt the bonus questions since they will not be penalized for answering a bonus question incorrectly. The dates for all of the tests are as follows:

(Wednesday CLASS):

TEST#1: Wednesday, October 11

TEST#2: Wednesday, November 8

TEST#3: Wednesday, December 6

The class before every test will constitute an informal review class if time permits; in essence, a review class is like a tutorial session where students come to class with prepared questions on the lecture content they will be tested on. As such, the review classes are directed by students, and work best when students arrive with items to discuss.

Group Discussions (12%)¹

During the course of the term, two discussion groups will be held on the dates listed below depending on which class you are in.

GROUP DISCUSSION#1 = Wednesday, October 18

GROUP DISCUSSION#2 = Wednesday, November 22.

These discussions will have slightly different instructions associated with them, but essentially, both of them require the student to read a specific article and prepare a brief analysis of that article. Both articles and the associated instructions can be found on D2L.

¹In order to be fair to all students, the following conduct will be penalized:

- Depositing your questions with the instructor or sending them with another student and not participating in the discussions.
- Not attending the discussion sessions without a legitimate excuse.
- Doing the review sessions before class and then just coming to class to hand in the review session.

In-Class Video Assignment (10%)

On Wednesday, October 4 – a documentary video will be shown that highlights the critical topic of human socialization. Immediately after the video, students will be required to answer a question directly related to the issue of socialization and the case study presented in the documentary on their own. The response to this question must be in sentence form and clearly articulated; in other words, do not make vague or incomplete statements. The quality of the response is what is important, not how long the answer is. In this respect, limit your answer to ONE page, single spaced. Once again, this does not mean you have to write one page, but try your best not to submit a response that is longer than one page.

In-Class Reading Assignment (6%)

On Wednesday, November 22 – depending on your class section –, a short article will be handed out in class for students to read. The article will deal with issues that are covered in Chapter 7 of the text on criminal deviance. After reading the article, students will then answer a number of questions related to the article, and hand in their work at the end of the class.

Two Optional Bonus Assignments - 2% (2 x 1% each)

On Wednesday, November 29 – students will have an opportunity to earn bonus marks totaling up to 2% that will be added to their final grade upon completion of the course. Since this component is purely optional, students can elect not to complete the exercise associated with the bonus mark. The exercise itself requires students to watch selective parts of two Hollywood movies that deal with social issues and then to answer one question associated with the videos. Unlike the previous in-class video assignment, this one will not be graded. As long as students provide a reasonable response, they will automatically earn the bonus mark. However, if the response shows a serious lack of effort, it will not earn the full one percent. Students who miss this assignment can receive the bonus mark provided they have a legitimate reason.

Missed Tests and/or Assignments

IF STUDENTS MISS TESTS OR ASSIGNMENTS, OR GROUP DISCUSSIONS, IT IS THEIR RESPONSIBILITY TO CONTACT THE INSTRUCTOR AS SOON AS PRACTICALLY POSSIBLE WITH RESPECT TO THEIR ABSENCE. IN ORDER TO MAKE-UP THE MISSED COURSE COMPONENT, STUDENTS NEED TO PROVIDE A LEGITIMATE REASON, OTHERWISE THEY WILL RECEIVE A GRADE OF ZERO ON THE MISSED COMPONENT. IN ADDITION, STUDENTS WHO WAIT UNTIL THE TERM IS OVER TO DISCUSS WHY THEY MISSED HANDING IN ASSIGNMENTS, WRITING TESTS, OR TAKING PART IN GROUP DISCUSSIONS, WILL NOT BE ACCOMODATED.

Digital-Recording in the Classroom

In order to ensure free and open discussion of ideas by the students, digital recording of any kind is not permitted in class. Exceptions, however, will be made for students who are visually impaired or are unable to write due to physical disability. Furthermore, please keep cell-phones out of sight. Students who are seen constantly using their cell phone in class will be asked to stop. If they do not comply, they will be asked to leave the class. Lastly, laptops are only permitted if they are being used to take notes or access D2L. If it appears that students are not using laptops in a constructive manner, they will not be permitted to bring laptops to class.
