Discussion Groups: 2.5% each (10%)

There are four discussion groups scheduled this semester which are based related course material. You are expected to work in groups to answer questions, with a one-two page summary to be submitted to the instructor at the end of the allotted time, and then a larger group seminar style discussion related to family and community issues. Each discussion group is worth 2.5% of your overall grade.

In-Class Presentation: 15%

Students are required to select one of the topics discussed in the course and relate it to a current issue/affair or community organization in the field of sociology of the family and give an in-class presentation based on your research work. It is necessary that you incorporate one of the main topics discussed in the course as a way to shed light on the issue. Please ensure that you supplement your presentation with added “credible” reference material – meaning, do not just use the textbook as your only source of information. The presentation is due the week that your topic is scheduled for class discussion. Students are required to work in groups and to submit one presentation electronically in power point for the group to the instructor the day you are scheduled to present; each presenter will also be graded individually during their presentation. Individual Mark 7.5% and Group Mark 7.5%.

Presentation Tips:

1. The presentation is shared equally among group members. It must not exceed 30 minutes or marks will be deducted.
2. You must use visual aids for your presentation i.e. power point
3. Do not copy every single word used by the author. Stress important points, and give reasons why you support or do not support the author’s perspectives
4. Speak clearly, slowly, and articulately
5. Avoid continual reading from your notes, and make eye contact with your audience
6. Ask and answer questions – part of your task is to facilitate group discussion
7. Present with confidence and remember to be yourself!

Midterm Test (25%):

The test will be held during class on Wednesday February 28 2024. The test will consist of short answer questions, and one long answer. You will be tested on all material including assigned readings, lecture material, and video presentations.

You are expected to answer questions described below and then prepare an individual 1-2 pages 12 font double spaced typed assignment to be submitted to the instructor on the due date indicated in your course outline and D2L.
