COURSE GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

The intention of this course is to help prepare students for using computer applications in their professional career. As a result, it is expected that assignments reflect the quality expected in a workplace environment (spelling/grammar, appropriate content). Assignments that excessively deviate from what would be considered a professional standard or contain content which may not be considered appropriate for the workplace may not be graded or returned for re-submission.

Commitment to your learning is a collaboration between yourself, your instructor, and your classmates. Please be prepared to participate fully.

You can expect your instructor to:

- Begin classes on time
- Be prepared for class every day
- Treat every member of the class with respect
- Engage in activities that will benefit your learning
- Foster an open and supportive environment in which to learn

Your instructor expects of you to:

- Be on time for class every day
- Treat others in the class with respect
- Take an active part in your own learning
- Be supporting and accepting of the views of others

SCHOOL OR DEPARTMENTAL INFORMATION

Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period by Camosun College. All students are expected to write the final exam at the time, date, and location set by the Office of the Registrar. Students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other reason(s), valid documentation must be provided, and it must be discussed with the instructor well in advance of the exam date. If the student is absent for an exam (written or practical) and has not made arrangements with the instructor in advance, a zero grade will be applied.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Enrolment at Camosun assumes that the student will become a responsible member of the College community. As such, each student will display a positive work ethic, assist in the preservation of College property, and assume responsibility for their education by researching academic requirements and policies; demonstrating courtesy and respect toward others; and respecting expectations concerning attendance, assignments, deadlines, and appointments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun's Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student's right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun's Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence. To contact the Office of Student Support: oss@camosun.ca or by phone: 250-370-3046 or 250-3703841

Student Misconduct (Non-Academic)

Camosun College is committed to building the academic competency of all students, seeks to empower students to become agents of their own learning, and promotes academic belonging for everyone. Camosun also expects that all students to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes to a positive, supportive, and safe learning environment. Please review Camosun College's Student Misconduct Policy at <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.5.pdf> to understand the College's expectations of academic integrity and student behavioural conduct.
