INSTRUCTOR DETAILS

NAME: Jill Corraini

EMAIL: corrainij@camosun.ca

OFFICE: Virtual

HOURS: email for meeting

As your course instructor, I endeavour to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me. Camosun College is committed to identifying and removing institutional and social barriers that prevent access and impede success.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

This course will familiarize students with legal issues and risk management strategies most relevant to the tourism and hospitality industries. Students will learn to recognize, prevent, minimize, and resolve exposure to legal liability. Students will also be able to prepare a risk and disaster management plan.

Prerequisites

One of:

- C in English 12
- C in Camosun Alternative

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES / OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course a student will be able to:

1. Describe basic features of the Canadian legal system and the relevant federal and provincial legislation that impact the tourism and hospitality industries.
2. Analyze and describe the implications of recent case law concerning tourism and hospitality operations.

3. Discuss the applicable legal principles in the areas of the law that frequently impact tourism and hospitality businesses.
4. Identify, evaluate, minimize, and resolve risks associated with tourism and hospitality businesses.
5. Prepare a risk and disaster management plan; and describe how this plan would be implemented and maintained over time.
6. Identify the unique legal challenges when working with First Nations (particularly tourism development), and local and regional governments.

COLLEGE-WIDE POLICIES, PROCEDURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND STANDARDS

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The College is committed to providing appropriate and reasonable academic accommodations to students with disabilities (i.e. physical, depression, learning, etc). If you have a disability, the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL) can help you document your needs, and where disability-related barriers to access in your courses exist, create an accommodation plan. By making a plan through CAL, you can ensure you have the appropriate academic accommodations you need without disclosing your diagnosis or condition to course instructors. Please visit the CAL website for contacts and to learn how to get started:

Medical / Compassionate Withdrawals

Students who are incapacitated and unable to complete or succeed in their studies by virtue of serious and demonstrated exceptional circumstances may be eligible for a medical/compassionate withdrawal. Please visit <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.8.pdf> to learn more about the process involved in a medical/compassionate withdrawal.

Sexual Violence and Misconduct

Camosun is committed to creating a campus culture of safety, respect, and consent. Camosun’s Office of Student Support is responsible for offering support to students impacted by sexual violence. Regardless of when or where the sexual violence or misconduct occurred, students can access support at Camosun. The Office of Student Support will make sure students have a safe and private place to talk and will help them understand what supports are available and their options for next steps. The Office of Student Support respects a student’s right to choose what is right for them. For more information see Camosun’s Sexualized Violence and Misconduct Policy: <http://camosun.ca/about/policies/education-academic/e-2-student-services-and-support/e-2.9.pdf> and camosun.ca/sexual-violence.
