Course Description:

This course is intended to provide the necessary language skills and cultural competence to prepare you to work and/or undertake further study in the professional fields in Canada. Using real-world examples and sample documents, you develop communication competencies through writing general workplace correspondence and reports. The vocabulary and grammar skills required to write effectively and accurately are reviewed through self-study exercises. In addition, because today's workplace is increasingly electronic, you use computers extensively to communicate by e-mail, and conduct research. The course is designed for non-native speakers of English, and focuses on the writing process and clear writing techniques. The course is equivalent to Grade 12 English and successful completion of the course gives you the prerequisite to enter English 150 and/or other college courses.
