Course Description

This course prepares intermediate and advanced level non-native speakers for the IELTS Exam, which is an internationally recognized as a preferred English Language requirement for educational, professional and immigration related purposes. Students will develop and practice test-taking strategies and the language skills of reading, writing, listening and speaking that will be encountered in the IELTS Exam. This course will give students:

- a good understanding of the IELTS test format
- practice in the 4 parts (Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking) of the test
- a full mock (practice) test under exam conditions
- individual feedback

In addition to the class hours, 2 computer lab hours each week will be provided for students to work independently on IELTS preparation exercises assigned by the instructor.

Please bring your textbook and headsets to every class. If you plan to be absent, contact your instructor by voicemail or e-mail before class.
