Learning Outcomes

ELD 064 is an integrated skills course for non-native English speakers which focuses on intermediate listening and speaking skills. This course corresponds to Canadian Language Benchmarks (listening and speaking) level 6. Students who complete this course and ELD 062 will be prepared for advanced ELD courses and selected courses at the college level.

At the end of the 4-month course (10 hours per week + 2.5 lab hours), successful students will be able to:

Speaking

- Participate in conversations using strategies to check people's comprehension, hold the floor, continue after an interruption, and change the topic; and as listeners, actively participate using strategies to confirm your own comprehension, request repetition or clarification, keep the conversation going, give up the floor and attend to changes in topic;
- Express, respond to and recognize forms of gratitude, appreciation, complaint, disappointment, satisfaction, dissatisfaction and hope;
- Express, respond to and recognize warnings, encouragement, discouragement, recommendations, advice, and suggestions to solve problems;
- Express concern about personal issues, interpersonal relations, and intercultural conflicts. As a listener, recognize and show concern about the value of other people's personal issues, interpersonal relations, and intercultural conflicts;
- Ask for and provide detailed information related to personal needs, varied daily activities and routine job activities;
- Demonstrate a step-by-step procedure about a moderately complex but familiar technical or non-technical task;
- Give an oral presentation; and
- Leave a phone message with 2 to 4 details.

Listening

- Understand detailed information concerning services, routine job activities and daily affairs;
- Understand a set of instructions related to moderately complex technical or non-technical tasks;
- Understand, take brief notes and perform a related task (e.g. Complete a chart) from information containing factual details in an extended description, report or narration; and
- Take information from a pre-recorded phone message with five to seven details.

Continue to Learn How To

- Demonstrate time management and independent learning skills;
- Make use of an English-English dictionary and a reference grammar in order to select or confirm appropriate word choice and correct usage;
- Use the computer and library facilities at the college to find information and produce documents;
- Make appropriate word choice and demonstrate correct usage; and
- Use the computer and library facilities at the college to find information and produce documents.

Progress and Attendance Policy ELD 032-064

Students are responsible for

- attending classes regularly (see “Attendance” below)
- speaking English in class
- participating in discussions and group activities
- doing assigned homework and in-class work
- contributing to a positive learning environment
- turning off cell phones
- going to the Help Centre (CBA 160) for extra help.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend class every day, participate in class discussions and group activities, and complete assignments.

If you are absent, email or leave a message with your teacher(s).

It is each student’s responsibility to attend the first class meeting of each course. If a student does not attend the first class and does not contact the instructor, an ELD instructional assistant or an international education advisor within two working days following the first class with a satisfactory explanation, admittance to the course may be denied.

If a student does not attend classes and does not officially withdraw (via Camlink or Student Services) prior to fee deadlines, he or she will be required to pay all outstanding fees, will receive no further service until the fees are paid and may receive an IP grade.

If you cannot come the day of a test, you MUST phone or email the instructor
BEFORE the beginning of the class.

Makeup tests will ONLY be considered with a valid excuse and sufficient notification.

During the term, if a student misses one week of class(es) without official documentation, s/he will first meet with the instructor to resolve the problem. If no resolution can be made, then the student will meet with the Chair of the department who may recommend the following:

- getting help from the Help Centre
- counselling
- program changes
- withdrawal
- discussion with an Academic or an International Student Advisor (where appropriate)

At the end of term, if a student has missed 50% of class after having received departmental support, a letter will be sent to the student’s local and permanent address regarding his or her absence in the course. A student with an attendance problem may not be allowed to register for the following term.

Students in any level are expected to attend classes regularly. If the student is unable to attend classes, s/he is expected to contact his/her instructor(s) or an ELD instructional assistant. Alternatively, official documentation is expected if classes are missed.

GRADING POLICY:

To complete an ELD course a student must get a mark of S (satisfactory) on the Learning Outcomes in each skill area (reading and writing or listening and speaking). At the end of the term, the student will receive a grade based on the Competency Grading System below.

Competency Based Grading System

This grading system is based on satisfactory acquisition of defined skills or successful completion of the course learning outcomes.

Grade	Description
COM	The student has met the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.
NC	The student has not met the goals, criteria, or competencies established for this course, practicum or field placement.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

Progress

If a full-time student (10 hours Listening/Speaking + 10 hours Reading/Writing per week) does not progress in the first attempt of a level, s/he will talk with the instructor to find ways to succeed. If the full-time student does not progress in the second attempt at the same level, s/he may be put on probation for the following term.

There is an Academic Progress Policy designed to enhance a learner's likelihood of success. Students should become familiar with the content of this policy. The policy is available in each School Administration Office, Registration, and on the College web site in the Policy Section.
